MADISON POLICE DEPARTMENT PROPOSALS

1. COPS Hiring Recovery Program. The Madison Police Department has submitted an application for a competitive hiring grant under this retooled program that covers the first three years of an entry-level officer's salary and benefits. The Department has requested funding for 20 additional officer positions.
Funding request: $4,443,181

2. Byrne JAG Formula Grants. In a joint application with seven other local law enforcement agencies, the Madison Police Department has applied for the local formulaic Justice Assistance (JAG) grant. These federal formulaic funds will be used to support the transition to the 5-shift staffing model, which was recommended as an efficiency measure in the 2008 Patrol Staffing Study, through the purchase of needed police vehicles. In addition, funding will provide equipment necessary for added officers, fund additional services from Domestic Abuse Intervention Services, provide continued funding for successful youth peer courts for first time offenders, and fund an LTE Grant Manager position to ensure adherence to reporting requirements for Recovery Act funds.
Funding request: $703,812

3. Edward Byrne Memorial Competitive Grant: The Madison Police Department has submitted a request for funding for a comprehensive community-based data-driven approach to preventing and reducing violent crime. The application outlines a proposal for implementing the acclaimed "High Point Model" to address issues of drug dealing in the South Police District.
Funding request: $276,744
