The Department of Civil Rights has a fragrance-free policy and requests that all offices and spaces used by visitors and staff remain free of scented products. Some persons employed with or visiting the Department of Civil Rights report sensitivity to various chemically-based or naturally scented products. We ask for everyone's cooperation in our efforts to minimize chemical barriers for staff and visitors.

For more information, please contact the Department of Civil Rights office at 266-4910 or the Occupational Accommodation Specialist at 266-4615.

Thank you for your cooperation.
