

Signing the Poll Book

Effective immediately, voters must sign or make their mark on the poll book in order to obtain a ballot. The poll book now contains a signature block for each voter. Although there are two identical poll books for every ward, only one poll book needs to be signed.

Voters unable to sign the poll book because of a disability are exempt from this requirement. If this applies to you, simply tell the Election Officials that you are unable to sign because of a disability. You do not need to disclose the nature of your disability to the Election Officials or to any observers. Election Officials will write the word “exempt” in your signature block.

An observer may challenge your ability to sign the poll book only if he or she has personal knowledge that you are physically capable of signing. If a challenge proceeds, you will take an oath that you are eligible to vote but unable to sign the poll book. You will then be issued a ballot.

Voter Registration Changes

You now must reside at your address for 28 consecutive days to be eligible to vote, and you may no longer use a corroborating witness as proof of residence. If you do not have a utility bill, bank statement, Wisconsin ID, paycheck, government document, or lease in your own name at your current address, you need to register more than 20 days before the election.

Recent Changes to Wisconsin Election Laws

Effective in 2011 & 2012

Our goal is for all eligible voters to be able to cast a ballot and have that ballot counted.

Photo Identification

Beginning in 2012, you cannot receive a ballot until you show one of the following forms of photo ID. Your photo ID does not need to show a current address.

Acceptable forms of Voter ID

- ★ Wisconsin driver's license expiring after 11/2/10
- ★ Wisconsin DOT-issued photo ID card expiring after 11/2/10
- ★ U.S. passport expiring after 11/2/10
- ★ Military ID card expiring after 11/2/10
- ★ Certificate of naturalization issued within last 2 years
- ★ Unexpired Wisconsin driver's license or state ID receipt
- ★ ID card issued by a federally recognized Indian tribe in Wisconsin
- ★ Unexpired ID issued by a Wisconsin accredited university or college—must contain issuance date, student signature, and expiration date within 2 years of issuance.

If you are eligible to vote but do not have a Wisconsin ID card, you may obtain a free ID for purposes of voting. You need to check a box on the DMV application to indicate that you need the ID for voting purposes.

In order to receive an ID from the DMV, you will need to present a certified birth certificate or passport; these documents are not free. Contact the Clerk's Office for more information to help you through this process. We recommend applying for an ID as soon as possible.

Changes to Absentee Voting

Absentee voting in the Clerk's Office is now restricted to the two weeks before an election. Absentee voting ends at the close of business the Friday before the election.

The new law prohibits absentee voting the Saturday, Sunday, or Monday before an election. The Madison City Clerk's Office will extend its office hours the Friday before the election, and will be open for voting the second Saturday before each election.

Beginning in 2012, absentee voters in the Clerk's Office must present the same type of photo ID required at the polls (see list on the left).

Absentee Ballot Requests

Beginning in 2012, absentee requests for ballots sent by mail or e-mail must be accompanied by a photocopy of an acceptable form of voter ID (see list on the left). Once you have sent the Clerk's Office a photocopy of your ID, you will not need to send photocopies with future absentee ballot requests.

Absentee voters may be required to enclose another photocopy of their ID with their ballot. We are waiting for the Government Accountability Board to provide some guidance on this requirement. When returning an absentee ballot to the Clerk's Office, please read the instruction letter provided by the Clerk very carefully. We want your vote to count!

- Voters on the permanent absentee list because they are indefinitely confined
- Nursing home residents who have their ballots delivered by a Special Voter Deputy
- Military voters
- Voters who are permanently overseas

Hospitalized Voters

Hospitalized voters may appoint an agent to pick up their ballot from the City Clerk's Office. The agent must present the hospitalized voter's photo ID to the Clerk's Office.

Provisional Ballots

Beginning in 2012, voters who are required but unable to provide photo ID will become provisional voters. This applies to both voters at the polls and absentee voters.

Provisional ballots are not counted unless the voter provides the Clerk's Office with an acceptable photo ID via e-mail, fax, or in-person by 4 p.m. the Friday after the election.
