Your child is worth it!

In-home family child care providers who are members of Satellite Family Child Care make the commitment to become City of Madison Accredited and offer quality family child care that meets a higher set of standards than state licensing or county certification regulations require. For a referral list of Madison Accredited in-home family child care providers contact Satellite Family Child Care at (608) 270-3438 or visit www.satellitefcc.com.

Centers and family child care homes are justifiably proud when they earn City of Madison Accreditation. If you are looking for child care, ask whether the program is accredited by the City of Madison or visit www.cityofmadison.com/commserv for a list of City of Madison Accredited Programs. Our children deserve the highest quality care.

CHILD CARE ASSISTANCE

Do you need assistance paying for child care...

- ❖ While you work?
- ❖ While you look for employment?
- ❖ While attending training or school? (High school or credits beyond high school sufficient to earn an associate degree.)
- ❖ For you or your child's special needs?

Are you ineligible for the Wisconsin Shares Child Care Subsidy Program?

Financial assistance is available to City of Madison low income families that are ineligible for the Wisconsin Shares Child Care Subsidy Program and meet the City of Madison eligibility requirements. Depending on your family's income, you may be eligible for full or partial funding based on a sliding fee scale. Madison Child Care Assistance is directly tied to the City of Madison's commitment to quality early care and education. If funded, families must use a center or family child care provider that is accredited by the City of Madison.

Quality counts!

Madison Accreditation Standards are intended to ensure families and child care programs work together in creating high quality care and education for children. The Accreditation and Child Care Assistance Programs are designed to promote the optimal development of the child and to help strengthen families. Research demonstrates that quality programs have positive effects on children's cognitive and social development, health and school success.

HOW TO APPLY

Families must reside within the City of Madison limits for at least six months to be considered for eligibility.

Call the City of Madison Child Care Assistance Program at (608) 267-4996. Program staff will conduct a phone screening to determine whether or not you may qualify for assistance. If eligible your name may be placed on a waiting list.

MADISON ACCREDITATION

The goal of the City of Madison Child Care Program is to improve and support the quality of early care and education in the City of Madison and to provide access to quality care to low income families. Child Care Specialists and Consultants spend many hours observing programs in action to see that they meet high standards of quality within the following areas:

- ❖ The activities and equipment offered to children.
- ❖ Interactions between teachers and children, including the way staff teaches, talks to and nurtures children.
- ❖ The environment for children.
