Dear Postal Customer;

We sincerely regret the damage your mail received during handling by the Postal Service. We hope this will not seriously inconvenience you. We realize your mail is important to you. You have every right to expect it to be delivered in good condition.

Although every effort is made to prevent damage to mail, it happens occasionally. Large volumes of mail are handled using rapid processing methods to assure the most expeditious distribution possible.

We want to assure you that we constantly strive to improve our processing methods so even rare occurrences of damage can be eliminated. We hope you understand.

Please accept our apology.

Sincerely,

Plant Manager
