

The Fair Housing Center of Greater Madison

is pleased to offer free

FAIR HOUSING TRAINING SEMINARS

for rental property owners and managers

Wednesday, September 21, 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

and

Wednesday, November 9, 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Madison Public Library – Ashman Branch, 733 N. High Point Road

Don't miss this chance to get the information you need at no cost! Call 257-0853 to register!

These free seminars will assist you in implementing your rental property practices in compliance with fair housing laws. Seminar topics include:

- Local, state and federal fair housing laws
- Advertising units in compliance with fair housing law
- Non-discriminatory negotiation with prospective tenants
- Interacting with current tenants in a fair and legal manner
- Reasonable accommodations and modifications for tenants with disabilities

"As a participant in numerous educational efforts for the residential property profession, I can unequivocally state that these seminars, conducted by one of the best fair housing agencies in the country, provide the most understandable and practical information on fair housing."

- Karin Long, Coordinator, City of Milwaukee Landlord Training Program

The Fair Housing Center of Greater Madison is a satellite office of the Metropolitan Milwaukee Fair Housing Council.

These seminars are supported by funding from the City of Madison Community Development Block Grant Program.

If you need materials in alternate formats or other accommodations to access our services, call 257-0853.