“Jeanne is a tireless advocate for low-income individuals and families. The application process for public housing and Section 8 vouchers can be confusing for both the applicants and those who are helping them. Jeanne is always available to answer questions and offer valuable suggestions for finding affordable housing in Madison. Jeanne has been a great addition to the CDA, especially when dealing with people with a multiplicity of issues. She makes fair and ethical decisions – always with the best interest of families as her guide. Jeanne is truly an asset to the CDA and the community as well.

Thanks, Jeanne, for your continued exemplary work.”
