CLOSING OF THE CITY OF MADISON SECTION 8 WAITING LIST

The Community Development Authority (CDA) which operates the City of Madison's Housing Choice Voucher Program (Section 8) is closing the Section 8 Waiting List as of April 1, 2003.

This closing means that no more applications for the Section 8 program will be accepted beginning April 1, 2003.

Currently, all of the 1556 available vouchers are being utilized and the Waiting List is over one year long. People do drop out of the program so vouchers will become available throughout the year. However, the CDA currently has more than enough applicants on the waiting list to fill those vacancies for the coming year.

It is anticipated that the Section 8 Waiting List will be closed for approximately 6 months.

The CDA will also look to reopen the Waiting List with plenty of public notice.

Applications for CDA Public Housing will still be accepted during the closing of the Section 8 Waiting List.
