Dear Mr. Trowbridge,

I am writing in support of development of a 58,000 square foot Copps grocery store in the Grandview Commons neighborhood. I've seen the latest plans being proposed by the developer and they address all of the concerns the neighborhood had when the project was first discussed (location and orientation of the building, size and density of the parking lot, flow of truck traffic, aesthetics of the building facade, etc.). In addition, the developer has included attractive community gathering areas and other beautifying features. I'm afraid of what will happen to our neighborhood if the commercial area, including the public library, never materialize. I believe this store will make this a vital, dynamic place to live.

Sincerely, Kristina Hauser
