

From: Janice Munizza
Sent: Thursday, May 26, 2011 9:39 AM
To: Murphy, Brad; Monks, Anne; Soglin, Paul; Waidelich, Michael Subject: Notice to MPNA

I attempted to Cc: you into this email that I sent to the MPNA yesterday regarding retail development in Grandview Commons and it was sent back "undeliverable." Hopefully this will make it to you this time. I believe we have a very vocal minority in the MPNA and want to make sure that you know that.

>> From: Janice Munizza <jmmunizza@gmail.com> >> Subject: Representation? >> To: board@mympna.org
>> Cc: "Lauren Cnare" <district3@cityofmadison.com>, bmurphy@cityofmadison.com >> Date: Wednesday, May 25, 2011, 5:01 PM >> It has come to my attention that >> either the entire MPNA board or a vocal portion of it is >> attempting to represent the neighborhood as being against >> the proposed store in Grandview Commons. I cannot >> express strongly enough how much I object to ANY >> representation of the neighborhood association being either >> for or against the store. The MPNA Board should >> not take a position. For me specifically, I moved to >> the neighborhood to have a vibrant urban development. >> In today's terms that would include an affordable grocery >> store that is able to remain open in order to serve the >> surrounding neighborhoods. In the real world, without >> a powerful retail "anchor" in our neighborhood we will also >> not have the library. I'm sorry, I didn't move from >> downtown Madison, into a "new urban development" that is >> unable to sustain businesses. I knew what I was buying >> into when I researched Grandview Commons. I know what >> I want; and you do not represent me. >> >> Sincerely, >> Janice Munizza