

Central Park Community Meeting
Goodman Community Center, 6pm, May 17, 2010
Public Comments

Prepared by David Schreiber, Schreiber Anderson Associates

- To be free
- Industrial Character
- Marsh Origin
- Neighborhood artists
- Organic, funky
- Winter effect
- Diversity of People
- Bike Path
- Restaurants & shops are local
- Place for everyone
- Self expression
- Congestion on Few St. an issue
- Seeing Capitol in the distance
- Place for Community
- Fete de Marquette
- School kids meeting
- Quiet, green retreat
- History of area
- Use geology, hydrology
- Day to day performance places
- Spaces to make art
- Swimming in lakes
- Orton Park dance
- Night lighting effects
- Light on Capitol dome
- Winter art
- Commitment to Sustainability
- Winter fireworks
- Native plant & animals
- Local food, edible plants
- Winter themes, activity
- Between bodies of water
- Glacial landscape
- Winter landscape plant art
- Integrate park to neighborhood & East Washington corridor development
- Places to do art
- Experience Shade
- Farmer's Market & other market opportunities
- Train experience
- Skate park
- Land use around the park
- Dance surface
- Demonstrate what sustainability looks like
- Dark sky effects
- Echo industrial use
- Educational experience, inspire youth
- Conversation size spaces
- Linkages to other isthmus spaces
- 4 season use
- Night safety
- Employment connection to park
- Adaptive reuse theme
- Destination
- Madison icon
- High water table
- Line of old lake Yahara
- Materials age well with time
- 3 – dimensional place
- Good park manners
- Intimate to communal spaces
- Industrial playscape that celebrates workers
- Progressive political attitude
- Cultural estuary
- Fit to neighborhood plans
- Neighborhood movie space