01 PO FRIDAY /ORIG - DISTURBANCEMADISON POLICE DEPARTMENT*Case No: 2016-211321 OriginalReport Completed: 06/21/2016
Case Offense: DISTURBANCE
Reporting Officer: PO RICHARD FRIDAY 4216
Special Routing: SELF; PO MUIRRef. No:*OFFICER INFORMATION

On 06/21/2016, at approximately 5:16pm, I was operating marked squad E508. I was dressed in full, military style uniform and acting in my official capacity as a city of Madison Police officer.

OFFICER NARRATIVEDISPATCH INFORMATION

On 06/21/2016, at approximately 5:16pm, I was dispatched with PO A Muir to the address of 89 East Towne Mall reference a disturbance. Dispatch advised that mall security was behind the food court with a female out of control and making threats. The female was described as a female, light skinned, wearing black pants with a grey and red shirt with a backpack. Dispatch advised the female was screaming at security over a possible theft of a cell phone from Taco Bell and refusing to leave.

ARRIVAL ON SCENE

Upon arrival, I parked my squad car outside of the food court entrance to 89 East Towne Mall. I observed that there were two mall security officers, dressed in uniform, standing outside the food court area. One of those officers was identified to me via Wisconsin photo DL as Nicholas A Bauer.

BRIEF CONTACT WITH BAUER

I approached Bauer and asked him what had occurred. Bauer pointed out a female, later identified to me by PO T Lupo as Genele H Laird, who had caused a disturbance. Bauer was standing with a mall security officer who I believed was named Rose. Rose indicated that Bauer had had a drink thrown from Laird onto him. While in contact with Bauer, Laird approached me and said that she wanted to leave her name for the police report and leave. I informed Laird that she was not able to leave, and she told me that she was going to leave. I told Laird again that she could not leave, and she needed to stay, and she told me she was going to leave. At that point, I told Laird to put her hands behind her back, and my intent was to detain Laird due to my investigation of a possible disturbance with threats being made.

ALTERCATION WITH LAIRD

Laird was facing me from a distance of approximately three feet away. I took my right hand and placed it near the right wrist area of Laird, grasping her right arm near the wrist area. I moved behind Laird and observed Laird move her left arm in front of her body, exerting energy to move it away from my grasp. I advised Laird to put her hands behind her back numerous times. With my left hand, I was able to grasp onto Laird's upper arm area and move my hand down her arm so that I was in contact with her wrist area with my left hand. I was then able to exert energy to move Laird's left arm behind her back area.

At this point, I was standing directly behind Laird. Laird was screaming and yelling numerous things, none of which I could specifically recall at this time. I continued to tell Laird to place her hands behind her back in order for me to place her into handcuffs. Due to my feeling that Laird was continually exerting energy in an effort to pull her arms away from my grasp, I did not feel as though I could index handcuffs to place them onto Laird without Laird's hands being free. Laird had a backpack with her that appeared to be brown in color and was between Laird and myself. I had to exert energy in order to keep Laird's arms behind her back while I was holding onto her left wrist with my left hand and her right wrist with my right hand. Laird's arms were straight for the most part, being held behind her back by my exerted energy. I was aware that if had removed my hand from either one of Laird's wrist areas, Laird would exert energy to pull her hand away from my ability to control her. Laird continued to yell.

I observed several mall patrons standing outside the food court area observing the incident with Laird. Due to my hands being on Laird's person, I could not immediately access my radio. I had to lean my chin down onto the shoulder mic of my radio and activate the mic in order to be able to speak to Dispatch. I advised Dispatch that there was a fight in progress. PO Muir then immediately arrived on scene to assist.

Prior to the arrival of PO Muir, It should be noted, I had attempted to decentralize Laird unsuccessfully. With my hands still near her wrist area, on each of her arms, I attempted to move to the left side with my body of Laird's person. I then moved my right leg in front of Laird, planting my foot on the pavement. I attempted to exert energy to force Laird forward, across my extended leg, in an effort to prevent her from being able to maintain her balance. Upon attempting to do so, Laird remained standing. I found that I did not have adequate leverage in order to direct Laird to the ground. I did tell Laird to get on the ground at that point. With my decentralization being ineffective, I decided to remain with Laird standing, again grasping onto her hands so she could not move them freely. Laird was able to move her hands to the front of her person at one point with me still grasping onto her wrist areas. It was at this point that I had to keep my shoulder mic using my chin.

Moving to the arrival of PO Muir, I was able to move to the left side of Laird and focus my attention on her left wrist area. Laird was able to exert energy to move her left hand in front of her person with me holding both my right hand and left hand near Laird's wrist area. Laird's hands were in fists. At one point, Laird screamed for me to "arrest her." Laird also was saying "bitch" several times. Laird was instructed to get on the ground now, and with the presence of PO Muir, I recognized that I was able to attempt to decentralize Laird again. I placed my right leg across the front person of Laird, again planting my foot on the pavement. Laird was directed forward, and I was able to use my right hand in order to direct Laird's left shoulder area toward the ground. Laird was directed to the ground in a controlled manner and made contact with the ground with her front chest area. I did not observe Laird strike her head on the ground at any time. Laird said something like, "You guys are so fucking forceful for no fucking reason." I had instructed Laird several times, "Put your hands behind your back; do it now."

At this point, Laird was lying on the front of her person on the ground. There was a curb area, and Laird's front of her torso and legs were on the raised part of the concrete. Laird's neck and head area were over the lowered part of concrete, not making contact with the concrete. Laird was attempting to turn on her left side. Laird exerted energy and moved her left arm away from her torso area. At that point, I was at the left side of Laird. I was able to put a handcuff ring onto Laird's left wrist area and use the handcuff to direct Laird's left wrist toward the small of her back area. I heard PO Muir say, "She spat in my eye." I also heard mention of an electronic control device being deployed. At one point, I told Laird to "keep your face down" because I was concerned she was going to continue to spit at PO Muir and myself.

When I was able to move Laird's left wrist area toward the small of her back, I was able to partially place a handcuff ring toward the middle area of Laird's right forearm. Due to PO Muir's grasp on Laird's wrist, I could not place the handcuff in a more suitable area. I attempted to handcuff Laird at that time but was only able to do so after the electronic control device was deployed. I continued to tell Laird to place her hands behind her back and to stop resisting. After the deployment of the electronic control device and my belief that Laird was under power from the electronic control device, I was able to take control of Laird's right wrist area. I directed her right wrist area toward the small of her back, but due to Laird having rolled on her left side, both of Laird's hands were very much near her right hip area. I was able to place Laird's right wrist into handcuffs, checking for fit and double locking them at that time. I immediately observed a silver object partially outside of Laird's backpack that Laird was wearing in some fashion. The backpack appeared to be slung around one of the straps. Due to my believe that the object was a knife—which it was found to be—I removed it from the backpack at that point as Laird's hand were approximately five inches away from the backpack and the knife. I provided the knife immediately to PO D Swanson who had arrived on scene to assist. Finding that the backpack was still on Laird and needed to be removed from her person due to the presence of one weapon, I decided that it was the best decision to cut the strap of the backpack to remove it from Laird. I used my department issued knife to cut the strap. The backpack was removed from Laird's person.

I heard Laird say, "I will bite you, I will fucking bite you." I was attempting to calm Laird down and said, "You need to calm down," and "You need to listen." I was also attempting to move individuals who appeared to be friends of Laird and who she was yelling to away from Laird's direct line of sight. I advised the individuals that Laird was focusing on them and needed to focus on us for her safety. I attempted to have the individuals move to a position behind Laird, where she could not see them. I continued to ask Laird, "What's your name?" and believed at one point that she said, "Chanelle^[ph]." Laird said, "I can't breathe," and I advised her that if she was talking, she was able to breathe. I also requested that additional officers on scene start Madison Fire Department personnel. The decision was ultimately made to move Laird into a squad car to remove her from the initial scene. I assisted by lifting Laird with officers by holding onto her left shoulder area. Laird was carried to the back of a squad car and seated in the rear seat.

CONTACT WITH BAUER

Once Laird was removed from the scene, I made contact with Bauer. Bauer told me that he received a call from the Taco Bell management of Laird saying she would jump the counter. Bauer told me he did not see Laird outside the front of Taco Bell and went into the back corridor where he observed Laird going through a male's backpack. Bauer said that Laird "started getting verbally aggressive" and was calling Bauer "just mall cops." Bauer said that Laird said that Bauer "can't do anything." Eventually, police were called, and Laird went outside. Bauer told me that Laird was yelling outside the front entrance to the food court, in front of other mall patrons, that security needed to "leave her the fuck alone." Bauer said that he had verbally banned Laird and that Laird said she could not be banned because she worked at the mall. Bauer told me that Laird underhand threw her drink at Bauer and that some of the drink spilled onto him. Bauer told me Laird said, "if we don't leave her alone, she's gonna kick my ass." Bauer told me he told Laird, "Right now, you're causing a disturbance" and that the police had been called. Bauer said that Laird said something to the effect of she did not care if Madison Police were responding. Bauer told me that he was fearful the incident could have turned physical due to Laird's aggressive and unpredictable behavior. I provided Bauer with my case number and the VRI form. I found that Bauer was disturbed by Laird's actions and charged Laird with one count of disorderly conduct due to Bauer's statement.

INJURED OFFICER

While on scene, I began feeling pain in my lower back area. I had suffered a previous work related lower back injury several years prior to the incident on 06/21/2016. I believe that the lower back injury is a direct result of the incident caused by Laird. Though I did not immediately feel the pain at the time of the injury, I believe it was potentially caused when attempting to twist my upper torso in order to direct Laird to the ground. I was taken by PO J Spielbauer to the St. Mary's Sun Prairie ER at 2840 O'Keefe Ave. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I did complete a Medical Release. I did not provide anyone consent to injure my back, and I did feel pain.

OFFICER NARRATIVESUMMARY

This report covers my use of force in response to Genele Laird's violent and assaultive resistance at East Towne Mall on 6/21/2016. See PO Friday's original report and other supplemental reports for more details. This report also covers the basis for the charge of battery to a police officer and discharging bodily fluids at a public safety worker.

INITIAL INFORMATION

On 6/21/2016, I was acting in my official capacity as a City of Madison Police Officer. I was assigned as 3F1, wearing full MPD uniform, and operating fully marked squad car number E539. That vehicle is equipped with an in car arbitrator video system and I was wearing a functioning and synced body microphone. The video was tagged as evidence and uploaded prior to my report.

At 17:16, PO Friday and I were dispatched to the East Towne Mall Food Court for a disturbance. The call notes indicated that behind the food court, there was a "female out of control making threats." She was described as a female, light skinned, wearing black pants and a gray and red shirt with a backpack. The call was updated with the note that she continued to scream at the security officer over a possible theft of her cell phone from Taco Bell refusing to leave.

I was originally responding to the scene in a routine fashion. PO Friday arrived before I did, and a short period of time after he arrived, but prior to my arrival on scene, PO Friday called out a "fight in progress." I have worked with PO Friday for more than two years and I am very familiar with his tone of voice and radio transmissions. I could tell from his tone of voice and his use of the radio code "ten ten" that he meant that he was actively involved in fighting with a subject. I activated my emergency equipment and responded. When PO Friday made that announcement, I was on the far end of the East Towne Mall lot.

INITIAL OBSERVATION

As I arrived, I saw PO Friday standing behind the suspect, later identified by other officers as Laird, actively struggling and fighting to take her into custody. I observed a crowd gathering around him. I know from my training and my experience that crowds can become hostile rapidly and that hostile members of crowds have attempted to physically intervene in arrest situations involving MPD officers recently. I know that this represents a high level of threat both to officers involved or to the original suspect.

INITIAL APPROACH

As I observed PO Friday fighting to overcome the suspect's resistance as I arrived, I parked my squad and immediately ran to PO Friday's side. I saw that PO Friday had Laird standing, immediately outside of the mall. I observed that it appeared PO Friday had both of her arms behind her back, but that his grip on her arms was tenuous. She was swaying back and forth, lowering her shoulders side to side such that they came almost parallel with her waist.

As I approached, I heard PO Friday say, "put your hands behind your back" in a loud, stern voice. I heard Laird yelling loudly, almost incoherently. As I approached, I instructed the dispatcher to restrict the main police radio channel to emergency traffic for PO Friday and I due to Laird's violent resistance.

USE OF FORCE

My use of force against Laird was in response to her behavior and my assessment of the threat her behavior presented. As I had observed PO Friday actively struggling to take Laird into custody, I could tell that he was exerting himself to keep her arms behind her back and overcome her ongoing resistance. I also recognized her exaggerated movements back and forth, her extremely loud and continuous yelling, and the fact that we had been called due to her violence as early warning signs of continued resistance and violence.

I initially responded to her behavior by placing both of my hands on her right arm. As soon as I made contact with her arm, I felt a rigid muscle tone in her arms, indicative of her straining against PO Friday. I also felt her tugging away from my grasp, which I know from my training to be defensive resistance.

My initial attempt to control Laird and take her into custody was overcome by her. She was able to wrench her arm from behind her back into the front of her body. She did this as she twisted her entire body to the right, away from PO Friday. Both he and I pivoted around her as she wrenched her upper body around. She was yelling and said something to the effect of, "you guys are so fucking forceful for no fucking reason." She managed to bring her right arm entirely in front of her body. This was concerning to me for two reasons; one, I believed she had not been frisked and I know that the front of the abdomen is a frequent place to conceal weapons, and second, I saw that her fist was clenched, which I viewed to be a further threat of ongoing resistance or violence toward PO Friday and I. Recognizing that my attempt to simply place her arm behind her back and handcuff her had been overcome, I escalated my use of force to attempt to decentralize her, in response to her continued, active resistance, which had successfully counteracted my first, lower use of force. I attempted to decentralize her, and deliver her to the ground, by sweeping my right leg along her right leg. This was unsuccessful; she remained standing and continued thrashing.

A moment later, she again overcame my continued attempt to place and hold her arm behind her back and successfully brought her closed fist to the front of her body again. At this point, I was forced to respond to her continued and escalating resistance and protect myself from her increasingly assaultive behavior by escalating my use of force.

At this point, simultaneously yelling very loudly and clearly "get on the ground, get on the ground now!" I planted my left foot on the ground and delivered two knee strikes to Laird's abdomen, that is, I picked up my right leg and struck her abdomen with my kneecap twice. During this, Laird continued to scream and said something to the effect of, "No you can't! No you can't!"

After delivering these two strikes, Laird fell to the ground. PO Friday and I went to the ground with her, as we were still holding on to her arms, though we still remained unable to overcome her resistance by pulling away from us and secure them behind her back. I then placed my left knee over her legs, and she was laying face down on the ground.

I felt her legs pushing against my knee as if she was trying to thrash them, and I was afraid she would be able to kick me. At this time, my right hand was on her upper right arm, and my left hand was on her right hand. She was screaming, very loudly, repeatedly, "bitch you kicked me, bitch you kicked me!"

It was at this point that Laird began to physically assault me. She clenched her right hand on the bottom part of my right hand, that is, the fleshy area between the base of my little finger and my wrist bone. She forcibly dug her nails repeatedly into my skin. This caused me immediate sharp pain that started anew every time she started reapplying more pressure. This left three marks on my skin, later photographed by Investigator Smith. I also had a small, half inch long, superficial laceration on my inner left forearm which I believe Laird caused during this time. That injury also caused me pain. She did this to me without my consent, while I was wearing full MPD uniform, and after I arrived in my marked squad car with the emergency lights on.

I responded to her assaultive behavior by giving a very loud, stern command, "Stop pinching me, do it now!" I protected myself from her assault by delivering a series of three strikes with my right knee into the left side of her abdomen. I drew my leg back prior to each. My left leg was on the ground, and I was essentially kneeling alongside of her when I delivered these strikes. I repeated a loud command of "stop!" as well.

At this point, her assaultive behavior by clawing at and pinching my hand had not ceased, and continued. In addition, her active resistance was continuing unabated. She continued to yell and forcibly twist her upper body. Instead of remaining in the position in which she was delivered to the ground, with her torso and face facing the ground, she was, immediately after the knee strikes, able to turn up to her right, moving her torso such that it faced the sky, and that she was able to turn her face towards mine and look at me. I could feel more tension in her legs as she turned. As stated above, she continued hurting my hand.

My series of knee strikes had not succeeded in overcoming her continued, active, and violent resistance, nor her causing me pain and visible injury. I responded to this sustained behavior then by striking her once in the lower abdomen with my closed right fist. I did strike her in that manner after bringing my fist above my head. Immediately before this, I yelled "stop!" and immediately after using this protective alternative, I gave her another stern, loud command, "stop pinching me!"

Her resistance and level of violence then escalated further. She bucked her upper body upwards, off the ground, almost to the point of sitting upright. She also kicked her legs up against my shins where I was applying pressure to them. This threw me off of her, and I slipped down off of the curb into the street. I continued to give her loud commands to stop, and she screamed incoherently back at me. I yelled, "stop pinching me" twice more. She began screaming threats, saying "on the g" and calling PO Friday and I "bitches." I ended up briefly straddling her with open space between my groin and her leg. She attempted to knee me in the groin with her left knee. I was able to move my right leg such that I caught her leg with the top of my boot and I applied my body weight downward then to control her legs and prevent any further assaultive behavior; however, when this happened, she was able to roll completely around so that her buttocks was on the ground, and her torso was upwards, and she was facing me.

PO Friday was, at this point, reaching under her body trying to control her arms, but was still unable to overcome her continuing resistance. I was holding onto one of her arms which was in front of her body with both arms, physically struggling to control it. Laird then looked at me, contorted her face into an angry look, and spat her saliva into my face. Her saliva entered my eyes, causing a stinging sensation and coated the lenses of my sunglasses which were perched on the brim of my uniform baseball cap. I told PO Friday, "she just spat in my eye." She did this without my consent.

At this point, in addition to her having just committed a felony by discharging her bodily fluid at me, I also felt that the threat was escalating from our surroundings. I was aware of numerous people moving in circles around us, pointing phones at us, recording. I was not concerned about the fact that they were filming, simply that they were around us, including behind my back, and I did not know if they were friends or family of Laird and if they would attempt to intervene. Our physical positioning was also poor relative to these unknown parties, as both PO Friday and I were on the ground and our attention was focused on Laird. Her hands were still free, moving backwards and forwards, and she had access both to her waistline and to a small brown backpack she was wearing. I did not know at the time if she had a weapon secreted in either area. Laird had just spat in my eyes, and my eyes were still stinging. Although I knew backup was en route, it was not yet on scene, and PO Friday and I were, for the time being, alone. I knew that it was a busy day in the city for police resources and that the East Towne Mall is at the northern extremity of the district. I did not know when backup would be expected to arrive. I also knew that PO Friday and I had been exerting ourselves to overcome her resistance for more than 30 seconds, and I know from my training and experience that our physical ability to continue would deplete rapidly.

In response to Laird's steadily escalating, violent, and assaultive behavior, and the threat that it would continue or could escalate, and recognizing the need to take her into custody as soon as possible to protect myself and PO Friday, I drew my electronic control device from its holster and attempted to index it against her lower abdomen, the best and largest target available given our physical positioning and the fact that PO Friday was over her upper body. She was thrashing and aggressively kicking with her left leg at this time, and the movement of her body was such that when I pulled the trigger, the ECD slipped off her abdomen, and one probe entered her body, and the other struck her backpack. She screamed "tase me!" and kicked, but still kept one arm and a clenched fist in front of her torso. PO Friday yelled, "Put your hands behind you back, do it now! Hands behind your back!" but Laird continued to yell and twist her body, pulling her body away from PO Friday with his arms locked under hers.

Seeking to obtain neuromuscular incapacitation to overcome her violent and assaultive behavior, I then placed one edge of the ECD device itself on her ankle as the first deployment timed out. This initial deployment was not successful in ending the threat nor gaining control, and PO Friday continued to visibly struggle to control her arms and place them behind her back. PO Friday continued to yell loud commands at her to put her hands behind her back. Due to the first deployment being unsuccessful, I then pulled the ECD trigger again, keeping the device in contact with her leg in order to obtain sufficient spread between that point and the barb on her abdomen. This deployment was effective, she screamed, and PO Friday was then able to overcome her, pull her arm behind her back, and place her in handcuffs.

I then announced that we had one in custody, I had deployed my ECD, suffered an exposure, and requested a supervisor and backup to our location. Dispatch marked that that occurred at 5:24 PM. She screamed at me, "you dumb ass bitch, you tased me five fucking times!" She then screamed incoherently.

She was now handcuffed but continued to yell and scream. I could feel tension and movement in her legs as she was straining to kick me. I secured her legs to the pavement by crossing them and applying my body weight through my shins to prevent her from kicking me. I kept the ECD indexed on her ankle.

Laird then picked her upper body off of the ground, from where she had by laying on her side. She then moved her head up towards me, facing me, while screaming. I recoiled away from her, afraid that she would spit at me again. I then placed my open hand against her temple, and stabilized her head against the pavement in order to prevent her from discharging any further bodily fluids at me or PO Friday. I gave her a loud, stern command, "don't spit at me again." She then yelled at me, "I will bite you, I will fucking bite you." I considered this a threat of further violence and I warned her that if she bit me I would deploy the ECD again.

TRANSPORT AND ON-SCENE MEDICAL EVALUATION

PO Spielbauer and PO Swanson were the next to arrive. I instructed PO Spielbauer to get a spit hood so that we could apply that and prevent her from spitting at any other police officers. I gave my ECD, still attached to Laird, to PO Swanson while I put on surgical gloves to prevent contamination from any bodily fluids. She was bleeding from the entry site of the probe.

At this point, at roughly 5:25 PM, we requested the fire department respond to evaluate Laird. A filming passerby demanded my badge number. I responded with my badge number, last name, and identified myself as a Madison Police Officer. PO Friday began aftercare with her, asking, "what's your name ma'am" repeatedly. She began crying, then escalated, screaming loudly. She told me to get off of her legs. I told her that she had kicked me twice and I would not be getting off of her legs. Then she escalated again and attempted to kick other officers, drawing her legs back as if cocking them for a strike. I warned her I would deploy the ECD again if she did that. She screamed, "I fucking hate you." Just prior to moving her, a silver colored, approximately four inch folding butterfly style dagger fell out of the top of her backpack as it was jostled, as if it were laying in the opening at the top of the backpack.

Other officers and I then carried her, securing her head, to my squad car, and placed her in it. Due to the volatility of the situation, our concerns for the crowd, and that she might escalate again, we removed her a few hundred yards from the scene by driving to the Sears Auto Center.

I had the Madison Fire units meet me there. Immediately upon being put in the squad, she reached her hands in front of her and took off her spit hood. While driving down the parking lot to Sears, she announced, "I'm too fat for this shit." She said, "you fucking tased me, this shit is still stuck to me, can you take it off? Can you take it off?" Then she yelled, "you fucking tased me, take it off!" She then let out three high pitched screams at the top of her lungs, each preceded by a deep breath, then looked at the camera. She began crying, then hit her head against the headrest repeatedly. When I asked her not to, she said that she could not be calm unless she was alone.

Once other units arrived at Sears, we prepared to remove her from the squad so that paramedics could evaluate her. As I prepared to put her back in the spit hood which she had removed, she said, "I only spat at you once!" I was able to put the spit hood on without difficulty.

As soon as she was removed from the car and standing, I removed the one probe in her abdomen in accordance with my training.

HANDOVER

I then gave custody of Laird to PO Lupo, PO Snoddy, and PO Moore. MFD medics were on scene assessing her. I briefed Sgt. Sweeney, who arrived moments thereafter. I advised him that she spat in my eyes and her saliva entered my eyes. He instructed me to report the Meriter ER to be seen by doctors for a potential significant exposure immediately.

MEDICAL TREATMENT AT MERITER AND DOCUMENTATION OF INJURIES

Inv. Smith met me at ER room 16 and photographed me, my injuries, and the saliva left on my sunglasses. I was [REDACTED] These injuries included the above described scrapes and lacerations on my left forearm.

DISPOSITION

I then returned to the East Police District. There, I completed the Use of Force Tracking with Sgt. Sweeney. I also completed the injured officer forms with him and turned over my ECD, taser number 601, to him for downloading. I drafted a PC affidavit for a charge of Battery to a Law Enforcement Officer and Discharging Bodily Fluids at a Public Safety Worker after reviewing those charges with Sgt. Sweeney.

Laird was transported to St Mary's and then to jail by other officers.

At EPD, I searched Laird's bag, finding nothing significant. She had [REDACTED] medication, clothing, toiletries, and a phone charger within the bag. I also found a small clear plastic re-sealable bag, about one inch by one inch, of the type I know from my training and experience is used to package illegal drugs for retail sale.

There was also a half inch burnt cigar end alongside a piece of cotton swab with two small green leafy buds embedded in the cotton. The two small buds were about 1 mm square and appeared consistent with my past observations of un-burnt marijuana.

I property tagged her property for safekeeping under 368290. The folding knife and the deployed ECD cartridge were tagged under 368289 and 368288 respectively. All items were placed in EPD 13 at 10:00 PM.

OFFICER NARRATIVE

On 6/21/16, at approximately 5:23pm, I heard PO Friday advise dispatch of an active fight at the East Towne Mall food court, where I knew he had been dispatched for a disturbance. I was dressed in full MPD military style uniform and was operating fully marked squad car E1803. I activated my emergency lights and siren and responded to the East Towne Mall to assist. Upon arrival, I saw officers had already taken the suspect into custody outside the food court, who was identified by officers as GENELE LAIRD.

PO C. Van Hove and I went into the food court to identify other involved parties in the initial disturbance. PO Van Hove and I made contact with two employees of Taco Bell, which is located inside the food court. PO Van Hove spoke with the manager, and I spoke with [REDACTED], who was the person Laird was accusing of taking her phone.

INTERVIEW WITH [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] told me he has only recently met Laird. [REDACTED] stated they met the previous night. [REDACTED] was at a friend's house during the night of 6/20/16, and Laird and her friend were there as well. [REDACTED] said their friends are mutual between he and Laird. [REDACTED] stayed at this friend's house the entire night and returned home in the morning on 6/21/16.

[REDACTED] began getting messages from Laird accusing him of stealing her phone while they were at their mutual friend's house the previous night. [REDACTED] told Laird he did not take her phone but Laird appeared insistent he did. [REDACTED] stated that shortly before police were called, Laird came to Taco Bell, where he was working, and was standing out front of the business, "yelling all sorts of crazy stuff." [REDACTED] told me Laird asked him if he, "had fun last night, then started yelling." [REDACTED] told me Laird was creating a scene outside the Taco Bell and at one point, told [REDACTED] "I know your manager is here. I don't care; I'll jump this bitch (the front counter) and stab you!"

[REDACTED] was insistent he did not have Laird's cell phone and offered to let Laird search his backpack. Laird walked behind the Taco Bell, through the employee access corridor and [REDACTED] met Laird in the corridor. [REDACTED] let Laird search his backpack. [REDACTED] told me that while Laird was searching his backpack, Laird had pulled out a pocket knife and was holding it in her hand with the blade exposed. Laird was making statements about how sharp the knife was and how it would "suck to get stuck" or something similar. Laird was also making motions with the knife toward the wall and was running the knife blade along the wall in a cutting motion. Laird completed searching the bag and either left or was escorted away by mall security. [REDACTED] told me he wasn't sure Laird would actually stab or cut him with the knife, but was worried Laird could have.

Based on Laird having verbalized to [REDACTED] which was overheard by the manager, and Laird subsequently arming herself with a pocket knife, which was recovered by officers, Laird was clearly acting in a manner which would lead a reasonable person to believe Laird's threats of violence were credible.

I completed a Probable Cause Affidavit for Laird's actions toward [REDACTED] and submitted the form to be added to the charges Laird was already facing.

OFFICER NARRATIVE

Summary

On 6/21/16 I responded to a disturbance at East Towne Mall located at 89 East Towne Mall in the City of Madison, County of Dane. I assisted other officers in detaining Genele H. Laird and securing her in the back of a police squad car. I then interviewed a security guard at East Towne Mall who identified herself verbally as Rosemary Skarski. Skarski told me that Laird had threatened Skarski to "punch me and have me on the ground before I could turn around," and that Laird said, "Bitch, I'll have you dead" to Skarski. Skarski told me that she felt threatened and disturbed by Laird's comments to her. I then conveyed Officer Friday to St. Marys Emergency Room in Sun Prairie where he was seen by physicians before conveying him to East Police District. I then completed a PC Affidavit for Laird with the charges of disorderly conduct based on my interview with Skarski as well as the charges of resisting, resulting in tissue damage based on Officer Friday's description of events to me.

Initial Information

On 6/21/16 at approximately 5:16 pm, I heard Dispatch send other officers to the food court at East Towne Mall located at 89 East Towne Mall in the City of Madison, County of Dane. The call notes advised that a female was out of control and making threats. I was at Kohl's department store for a retail theft at the time and left the scene to begin heading towards East Towne Mall. While en route, I heard Officer Friday request back up, as he was in contact with the subject at East Towne Mall. I then activated my emergency lights and sirens and drove to East Towne Mall.

Arrival on Scene

When I arrived on scene, I observed that Officers Friday and Muir were in contact with a subject whom they had pinned on the ground. I could see that Officer Muir had deployed his taser. Additionally, I observed a large crowd gathering around the scene. I assisted Officers Muir and Friday in securing Laird, and I placed a spit hood on her as other officers advised that she had been spitting. Eventually I assisted other officers in securing Laird in the back of a squad car where she was moved from the scene.

Interview with Skarski

After Laird was transported from the scene, I made contact with one of the mall security guards who identified herself verbally as Rosemary Skarski. I asked Skarski what happened, and she said, "We got a call to the food court that there was a girl there threatening to jump over the counter."

Skarski told me that after she arrived on scene she observed, "She was screaming that she was going to search everyone's pockets for her missing cell phone." Skarski told me that Laird then "started screaming at both me and the other security officer, telling me that I was nothing but a fucking mall cop and she wasn't going to listen to me." Skarski added that Laird said something to the effect of, "That she was going to punch me and have me on the ground before I could turn around."

Skarski told me that as she and the other security guard were trying to move Laird along, Skarski asked the other officer if he had called police and that when Laird this she turned around and said, "Bitch, I'll have you dead." Skarski told me that she then stayed further behind and said to the other officer to just let Laird cross the street. Skarski told me that Laird then turned around and threw her drink on the other officer just outside the exit doors to the mall.

Skarski then said, "I said why don't wait till the police arrive," referencing Laird being upset about her allegedly stolen cell phone. Skarski told me that Laird responded by saying something to the effect of, "Step off the curb and I'll punch you out and have you dead." Skarski told me that Laird "just went back and forth telling people that we weren't letting her go." Skarski said that Laird was "pumping up the people and telling them a guy in the mall stole her phone and we were telling her to leave."

Skarski told me that then the police arrived and the first officer told Laird to talk to him but that Laird just started screaming at him and telling him to "fuck off and suck my nuts." Skarski said of Laird, "She really fought him, as he approached her, she was very aggressive and people like me were telling her to talk to the officer." Skarski said that the officer then told Laird that he would put her on the ground if Laird did not stop her behavior.

Skarski told me that then the second officer arrived and helped take Laird down to the ground and that Laird was "spitting and cursing and kicking." Skarski then told me, "I couldn't believe how much she fought and kicked and tried to bite." I asked Skarski for clarification that Laird tried to bite officers, and Skarski said, "Yeah, she said she was."

Conveyance of Officer Friday

After finishing my interview with Skarski, I learned that Officer Friday had been injured during the altercation with Laird. Sgt. Sweeney then directed me to convey Officer Friday to the hospital for him to be treated for his injuries. I then conveyed Officer Friday to St. Marys emergency room where he was seen by physicians there. After the hospital staff finished treating Officer Friday, I then conveyed him to East PD.

Disposition

At East PD, I assisted Officer Friday in moving his equipment from his squad car back to the station due to his injury. I then filled out a PC Affidavit for Laird with the charges of disorderly conduct based on my interview with Skarski as well as a charge of resisting a police officer causing soft tissue damage based on an interview I had with Officer Friday.

OFFICER NARRATIVE

On 06/21/2016, at approximately 5:24 p.m., I was assigned with several East District officers to the East Towne Mall food court area located at 89 East Towne Mall, reference what was initially dispatched as a disturbance; however, I was added to the call after Officer Friday, who was on scene, called out that there was a fight in progress. After Officer Friday broadcast this information, I responded with my emergency lights and siren activated.

Upon arrival, several other officers were standing in front of the food court area on the exterior of the mall and Officer Gerstner and I were approached by a male and female subject, who indicated that they work at the Sprint kiosk within the mall, stating that a female friend and acquaintance that had been involved in the disturbance had initially been at the Sprint kiosk and was upset about her phone being stolen. The male subject (unknown name; see Officer Gerstner's report for contact information and statement) and the female subject (identified via Wisconsin probationary driver's license as [REDACTED]) indicated that the possible suspect for the stolen cell phone was currently working at the Taco Bell located within the food court.

Officer Gerstner and I walked over to the Taco Bell located inside the food court area where I was able to contact the Taco Bell general manager (verbally identified as BRANDI M. JAIME) while Officer Gerstner contacted the male that was suspected of stealing the cell phone (verbally identified to me only as [REDACTED]).

I asked Jaime what had drawn her attention to the disturbance to begin with and she told me that the "loudness of it" is what drew her attention to the front counter area where a female subject (verbally identified to me as GENELLE LAIRD), victim of the previous cell phone theft, was standing at the front counter arguing with [REDACTED] about her missing phone and demanding that [REDACTED] return it. Jaime said that she heard Laird stating that she did not care if Jaime was [REDACTED] district manager and Laird proceeded to make a statement similar to "I'll jump over this counter and stab you." Jaime stated that she heard Laird make statements that she did not care if she went to jail because the bail would be less than the value of her missing phone and [REDACTED] invited Jaime to come to the back hallway area behind the restaurant to search through his bag to prove that he did not have her phone. Jaime said that security came up the front counter area and met with Laird and walked around through the back entrance to the hallway located behind the restaurant; however, Jaime stated that she did not want to allow Laird inside the restaurant so Jaime locked the rear door of the restaurant. Jaime told me that she was disturbed by Laird's comments and also indicated that several patrons within the food court area were looking over at Laird as Laird was becoming upset due to the volume level of Laird's behavior. I asked Jaime if she was willing to pursue charges for disorderly conduct against Laird and Jaime stated that she was not sure and did not know if she could do so, unless she got approval by their corporate office.

Jaime described the female subject (Laird) as a female of a mixed race that was approximately 18 years old, with a thin build, about 5'6" tall, with curly, shoulder length, black hair "kind of teased up," wearing black pants, and a black and white tank top with some red detail. Although Jaime heard Laird make a statement about stabbing, Jaime did not see Laird with a knife during her observations.

After Officer Gerstner and I were finished interviewing the individuals at the Taco Bell, we then walked over to the Sprint kiosk where Officer Gerstner was able to contact the male subject and I contacted the female subject [REDACTED] that had originally approached us in front of the food court area outside. I took [REDACTED] aside separate from the male subject as Officer Gerstner spoke with him and asked [REDACTED] what she had observed. [REDACTED] gave me a back story that the previous night [REDACTED] Laird, and [REDACTED] were all at [REDACTED] residence [REDACTED] and that [REDACTED] left from [REDACTED] last night with [REDACTED] and Laird falling asleep after the fact. [REDACTED] stated that Laird's cell phone was last seen next to the couch in [REDACTED] residence and when the two of them woke up later, Laird discovered that her cell phone was missing so they both believed that [REDACTED] had to have taken the phone since no one else was with them. I asked [REDACTED] if they had contacted [REDACTED] Police Department to report the theft and she stated that they did not call the police since they thought that he may have just left with the phone and would return it later when both [REDACTED] and Laird would see them. [REDACTED] also indicated that they did not want to get [REDACTED] in trouble if [REDACTED] was willing to give the phone back. [REDACTED] also stated that prior to [REDACTED] and Laird contacting [REDACTED] at the Taco Bell, Laird's boyfriend (unknown name) and Laird had been texting [REDACTED] during the day stating that he needed to return Laird's phone to her. [REDACTED] said that she heard that [REDACTED] responded by text message with something similar to "It's already gone."

At that mall, [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] and Laird were "shopping around" and walked by the Taco Bell in the food court where they observed [REDACTED] working. [REDACTED] said that Laird "just asked for it back" and began to state that [REDACTED] needed to give her, her stuff and that was when Jaime came up to the front counter area asking Laird to leave. [REDACTED] said that Laird became really upset when she discovered that Jaime had called the police and [REDACTED] said that security did walk with Laird through a hallway area to the back of the Taco Bell restaurant where [REDACTED] accompanied her. [REDACTED] said that security told Laird that there was not much that they could do and that Laird should not have brought the issue to the mall. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] told her that he trusted her and offered to allow [REDACTED] to go into his residence to look around to prove that he did not have the phone at his residence. [REDACTED] said that Laird initially stated that it was "BS", but both [REDACTED] and Laird then were considering going to [REDACTED] residence to look, but the police then arrived on scene where they were located in front of the food court outside of the mall.

[REDACTED] said that Laird got even angrier when the police arrived and that when the police were starting to detain Laird, "she freaked out." [REDACTED] said that she saw Laird get thrown down to the ground and that Laird was spitting at the police. When I asked [REDACTED] if she saw if Laird had spit at one of the police or more police that were on scene, she told me that she did not see Laird spitting, but assumed that Laird was spitting because she saw the spit hood placed over Laird's head. [REDACTED] said that she believed that Laird felt like no one was helping her since she had her phone stolen.

I asked [REDACTED] if she ever saw Laird with a knife and she stated that she did not. I asked [REDACTED] if she heard Laird threaten to stab anyone with a knife and she said that she heard Laird saying something similar to "I will hurt you" from the front counter area at the Taco Bell if [REDACTED] did not give her, her phone back. [REDACTED] also added that after security walked with them from the back hallway area behind the Taco Bell to the exterior of the mall in front of the food court area, Laird grabbed a hold of a water glass that someone had left outside that was partially filled with water and then threw the water at the security guards, prior to police arriving. [REDACTED] ended her conversation with me stating that Laird was really upset and works really hard for what she has. I did advise [REDACTED] to relay to Laird that Laird should report the phone stolen to [REDACTED] Police Department and I advised [REDACTED] to have Laird bring along whoever received any of the text messages from [REDACTED] indicating that [REDACTED] may have had the phone at one point in time. I gave [REDACTED] the public phone number for the Dane County Jail since [REDACTED] indicated she would most likely be contacting Laird's grandmother and I also gave [REDACTED] the case number prior to clearing from the mall. I then returned to the East Police District to complete my report.

OFFICER NARRATIVE

On 06/21/16, I was operating as the field supervisor for the North District. I was operating unmarked squad 1846. I was dressed in a full military style MPD uniform. At 5:16pm I heard dispatch send officers to 89 East Towne Mall. At 5:23pm one of the officers called out that there was a fight at the mall. Several officers and Sgt. Jason Sweeney were dispatched to the mall. I responded to the mall as well due to the amount of resources that were being utilized.

Upon arrival I observed officers placing a female black in a squad car. The officers were in the driveway area directly in front of the food court of East Towne Mall. The female was later identified to me as GENELE LAIRD by Sgt. Sweeney. PO Muir advised me that he was going to transport Laird to another area of the mall parking lot since a crowd had gathered to observe the incident. Once PO Muir moved Laird the crowd dispersed. I made a request to dispatch to have Sgt. Sweeney respond to the area near Sears where PO Muir was located.

I contacted PO Richard Friday who was interviewing a security guard. PO Friday advised me that he assisted PO Muir with detaining Laird but he did not have any background about what occurred before his arrival.

I asked PO Tanner Gerstner and PO Chris Van Hove to attempt to locate a possible suspect who may have stolen Laird's phone. PO Gerstner later contacted an employee at Taco Bell. Please reference his report.

As the investigation continued, PO Dan Swanson advised me that Laird threatened to kill a security guard that was interviewed by PO Jason Spielbauer.

I observed a female leaving the mall that I observed in the crowd as I arrived on scene. I contacted the female who was identified verbally as [REDACTED]. I contacted [REDACTED] on the curb area across the driveway from the front of the food court.

[REDACTED] was accompanied by 3 others. I asked [REDACTED] if she knew the female that was detained by police. [REDACTED] stated that she did not. I will refer to the female as Laird even though [REDACTED] stated to me that she did not know her at all.

[REDACTED] stated that she was talking to Laird prior to police arrival. [REDACTED] stated that she was talking to Laird in the same spot where I spoke to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that Laird told her that somebody stole Laird's phone. [REDACTED] stated that Laird told her that Laird gave the phone to somebody to use it and then someone stole the phone from that person. [REDACTED] stated that after she spoke with Laird, [REDACTED] went to the bus stop and Laird went into the mall. [REDACTED] did not have any information about the subject that Laird gave the phone to.

[REDACTED] stated that Laird told her that the stolen phone was a Galaxy S7. [REDACTED] stated that Laird told her that Laird worked for Sprint and that her phone was stolen in the mall. [REDACTED] stated that Laird was [REDACTED] stated that Laird was also [REDACTED] was later interviewed by PO Van Hove.

I asked [REDACTED] why Laird was upset. [REDACTED] stated that Laird was mad that her phone was stolen and that the security guard was not helping her. At that time I concluded my contact with [REDACTED]

I spoke with PO Gerstner. PO Gerstner advised me that he spoke with an employee at Taco Bell and he had charges against Laird for her conduct toward the Taco Bell employee. PO Gerstner told me that the phone went missing the night before and the employee of Taco Bell was with Laird at that time. I also learned from PO Friday that Laird had a knife on her person when officers had contact with Laird.

I cleared from the call and I was en route to NPD when Sgt. Sweeney asked me to meet up with PO Friday who was injured during the incident. PO Friday was already discharged from St. Mary's East by the time I acquired the necessary paperwork. I met PO Friday at EPD. I completed an Injury Accident Form. PO Friday completed a Medical Release. I scanned PO Friday's discharge paperwork and emailed it to the Criminal Intake Unit.

After I finished with PO Friday, I responded to [REDACTED] to clarify some points with [REDACTED] I asked [REDACTED] if she observed the incident after police arrived on scene. [REDACTED] stated that she did. [REDACTED] stated that she saw Laird talking with a security guard outside of the mall in front of the food court. [REDACTED] stated that the security guard told Laird, "You can't be threatening him." [REDACTED] stated that Laird responded, "I don't care, I want my phone. You should be helping me." [REDACTED] stated that she thought the security guard was referring to the subject that took Laird's phone. [REDACTED] stated that the security guard went into the mall and [REDACTED] believed that was when the police were called. [REDACTED] stated that was when she went to the bus stop.

[REDACTED] stated that she returned to the front of the food court from the bus stop. [REDACTED] stated that she observed the first police officer arrive on scene and contact Laird. [REDACTED] stated that the first officer tried to detain Laird. [REDACTED] stated that Laird stated something similar to, "No I'm not fitting to get arrested." [REDACTED] stated that everything happened real fast from that point. [REDACTED] stated that the police officer was trying to get Laird into handcuffs. [REDACTED] stated that she heard Laird say, "I just want my phone." [REDACTED] stated the officer told Laird that she was not cooperating. [REDACTED] stated that Laird did not want to be detained and she was trying to free herself from the grasp of the officer. I asked [REDACTED] how Laird was trying to free herself. [REDACTED] demonstrated that Laird was twisting her arms and trying to pull away from the officer.

[REDACTED] stated that the first officer then gave two knees to the back of Laird's leg to get her to bend. [REDACTED] stated that the officer then flipped Laird onto the ground. [REDACTED] stated that a second officer arrived and held one of Laird arms while he pinned her to the ground. [REDACTED] stated the first officer that arrived on scene gave Laird a third knee to her thigh while she was on the ground. [REDACTED] stated that the officers were still trying to get Laird into handcuffs.

[REDACTED] stated that Laird was crying and screaming. [REDACTED] stated that Laird was still trying to get free. [REDACTED] stated that while Laird was face down on the ground the first officer punched Laird on the right side of her torso. Laird stated that the second officer was still holding one of Laird's arms.

██████████ stated that she did not see Laird spit but she assumed that Laird did spit because the officers placed a hood over her head. ██████████ stated that she did not know what happened prior to Laird being tased because by that time there were several officers around Laird and ██████████ view was blocked. ██████████ stated that she thought that multiple officers tased Laird because she saw more than one wire. I explained to ██████████ that a taser deploys two wires. ██████████ stated that the officers then placed Laird into a squad car.

██████████ stated, "I feel like the officers went too far. At the same time she could have handled the situation a little better and maybe the officers wouldn't have done what they did." ██████████ went onto say, "She did not allow the them to do their job."

I asked ██████████ if she saw Laird with a knife. ██████████ stated that she did not see a knife. I then concluded my contact with ██████████ and there was no further incident.

INITIAL INFORMATION

On 6/21/2016, at approximately 5:23pm, I observed PO Friday call out via the radio that he was engaged in a physical fight with a subject at the food court at East Towne Mall. I then responded to that location in full emergency mode.

ARRIVAL ON SCENE

Upon my arrival, I could observe that the suspect, later ID'd verbally by PO K. Snoddy as GENELE H. LAIRD, was being stabilized on the ground by other officers and handcuffed. I could observe that Laird was screaming extremely loudly but could not make out what she was saying. Other officers then physically escorted Laird to the back of PO Muir's squad vehicle, where she was placed in the rear portion. I then followed PO Muir over to the area of the Sears parking lot in order to separate Laird from the amassing crowd for her medical evaluation by EMS. Once in the parking lot, Laird continue to scream in the back of PO Muir's squad vehicle and at one point began to bang her head with a significant degree of force against the plastic partition.

MEDICAL EVALUATION/TRANSPORT TO HOSPITAL

Upon the arrival of EMS personnel, Laird was removed from the vehicle to be evaluated. During this time, Laird was shouting that she needed to be left alone to calm down, and wanted everyone to step away from her. Laird did eventually calm down significantly, allowing her to be treated. After EMS determined they were no longer needed, they cleared from the scene, and I was advised that I would need to transport Laird to the hospital for a medical evaluation, due to the fact that there had been a significant exposure to PO Muir from Laird spitting in his eye while she resisted arrest. Laird stated that she received her medical services through St. Mary's, at which point I escorted her to my squad vehicle, seated her in the rear portion, and then transported her to that location.

[REDACTED]

Upon our arrival, Laird was interviewed by a nurse in triage to gather some basic information about why she was there. During that time, Laird

LAIRD'S DESCRIPTION OF EVENTS

Laird then went on to recount a portion of the physical events which had led to her arrest to the nurse as well. I observed Laird state that she had gone to the mall to confront a subject who she believed had stolen her phone, and had agreed to meet her there to look through a bag to confirm the phone was not there. Laird stated that the manager later called security, who "smart mouthed" her, and caused her to get upset. She stated that security told her to leave the property and that she was now banned from the mall. Laird stated that as she exited the mall, she was followed by security, and that she turned around to throw a cup of water at the security guard. She stated however that she "knew better" than to throw the cup directly at him, so she threw it next to him, causing "3 drops of water" to land on his shoes. Laird stated that security then told her that they would be calling the police, at which point she stated "I don't give a fuck if you call the police". Laird then stated that as police arrived on scene, an officer told her that she needed to come with him, and she stated that she tried to "evade his detainment" when he took a hold of her, because he had not yet taken her information or read her Miranda rights to her. She stated that she was yelling at the officer her name, date of birth, and address because she "knows what officers ask for", and did not want him to touch her until he had done the above. The nurse then asked Laird if she had spit at one of the officers, and she stated that she had, saying "At some point I spit on him. That should make you BACK OFF".

DISPOSITION

Shortly thereafter Laird was returned the lobby waiting room to wait for a room to open up for her. During this time, I was contacted by Sgt. J. Sweeney who advised that there would be probable cause for several charges against Laird. I was additionally advised that it had been determined that no significant exposure to PO Muir had occurred, so if Laird did not desire any further medical evaluation, we were free to transport her to the jail. I then asked Laird if she desired any further medical evaluation for any injuries she may have sustained, and she stated that she did not.

I also contacted [REDACTED] [REDACTED] took down the necessary report information, and requested I advise medical staff at the PSB immediately upon our arrival so that she could be evaluated for services if needed.

I then escorted Laird to my squad vehicle, seating her in the rear portion. I then transported Laird to the PSB, at which point she was transferred to the care of booking deputies without incident. I also apprised them of [REDACTED]

NARRATIVE:East Towne Mall Video

On 6/21/16 at approximately 5:15 PM, officers were dispatched to a disturbance at East Towne Mall at 89 East Towne Mall Street. At this time, I was working as a detective in the East Police District and monitored the radio transmissions until the female subject was taken into custody. Later in the evening, I located the following Facebook post by user "RichBoy Robinson" at profile URL <https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=100008713631510>:

I real life just watched the cops beat the shiit out of this 18yr old girl for no reason But I got the whole thing on video! OFN! Someone bout to loose their job frfr. Listen closely how he called her a bitch while literally Punching and Kneeing the girl while on the ground already.

(I submitted it to WKOW News channel 27)

The post made by RichBoy Robinson indicated he was with "Kenee Glo Washington" at East Towne Mall. I reviewed this post at approximately 9:20 PM and the post indicated it was made 3 hrs ago in Madison, Wisconsin. This post also included what appeared to be a cell phone video of this incident. I observed this video to be approximately 1 min 33 seconds in length.

At approximately 9:23 PM, this same user posted another video with comment that stated:

Here goes the WHOLE Video I took from today#Madison #EastTowneMall #Fuck12
 #BlackLivesMatter
 #Share Share Share Share Share Share!!!
 Make this go viral and get those Pigs sued, fired and charged

 Help put these officers to Real Justice!!!

I observed this post contained a second video, which appeared to capture more of the incident and I observed to be 6 min 34 seconds in length. Of note, I observed a comment from user "Bishop Hughes," under Facebook URL <https://www.facebook.com/Bishybro8?fref=ts> that stated:

"If I could hunt those two officers down though..."

This post appeared as being made by Bishop on 6/21/16, approximately 50 minutes prior. I found Bishop Hughes to list the birth date [REDACTED] which was consistent with Bishop J. Hughes (DOB [REDACTED], who I located in Madison Police records.

Property Tagging

I downloaded both videos of the incident to CD, as well as screen shots of the Facebook accounts of RichBoy Robinson and Bishop Hughes. It should be noted that all of the above Facebook content was viewable from public profiles. I property tagged this CD in the East District Property Room at approximately 9:44 PM. I property tagged this item under tag # 368287 and secured it in locker #40.

NARRATIVE:911 Call/CAD Printouts

On 6/22/16, I received an email from Lt. Carl Strasburg, which contained a copy of the 911 call for this incident and a copy of the police radio transmissions. I then received an email from Paul Logan of the Dane County 911 Center, forwarded to me by Lt. Strasburg. This email contained the CAD printouts for this incident. I called Paul Logan at approximately 11:50 AM on 6/22/16. Logan verified that he provided Lt. Strasburg with the single 911 call and copy of the police radio transmissions. Logan verified that there was only one 911 call for this incident.

I downloaded the 911 call, the copy of police radio transmissions, and the CAD printouts to CD. I property tagged this CD in the East District Property Room on 6/22/16 at approximately 7:09 PM. I property tagged this CD under tag # 368330 and secured it in locker # 40. I also attached a copy of the CAD printouts to this report.

I reviewed the 911 CAD printouts for this incident. The incident date and time were listed as 6/21/16 at 17:15:52. The address listed was 89 East Towne Mall and the caller was listed as "SEC/ETM/NICK" with a call back number of [REDACTED].

I listened to the 911 call for this incident. The caller identified himself to the 911 call taker as "Nick Bauer," a security officer at East Towne Mall. A voice can be heard in the background and Bauer stated, "Hang on a second." Bauer identified his location as in the corridor behind the food court. Bauer stated, "And she's threatening...she threatened myself and my other officer. So we need to have an officer come to remove her." Bauer described the female as a light-skinned and described her as wearing black pants and a gray and red shirt. Bauer also described this female as wearing a white badger hat and a brown backpack. The caller taker asked if the female was the one screaming in the background and Bauer responded, "Yes it is." Bauer said this female is "mad" because she thinks an employee at Taco Bell took her phone. Bauer then appeared to talk to the female and stated, "You know what? Quiet." A female voice then responded, "You know what? Just eat nuts." Bauer was advised that officers were en route and was advised to call back if anything changes.

MADISON POLICE DEPARTMENT

Case No: 2016-211321 Supplement
Ref. No:

Report Completed: 06/22/2016
Case Offense: Disturbance
Reporting Officer: DET BRADLEY WARE
Special Routing:

ATTACHMENT:

Patrykus DOT Photo, Channel 3000 article, Patrykus Facebook Messages

NARRATIVE:

On 6/22/16, I reviewed the Facebook page of "Richboy Robinson." I observed a post by this profile that also tagged user "DP Robinson." The post stated:

My video I recorded today is at half a million views and 47.4k shares
Fuck12 #MadisonPolice
Go like, and share my video. Add me too
Get justice for her!
#BlackLivesMatter

When I reviewed the user "DP Robinson," I found the profile picture to depict the same male in the profile for "Richboy Robinson." The URL for the profile "DP Robinson" was <https://www.facebook.com/daniel.patrykus?pnref=story>. I was also provided a channe 3000 article that cited "Dan Patrykus" as the author of the recorded, East Towne Mall cell video. I attached a copy of the article to this report. I ran the name Daniel Patrykus through DOT records and found the DOT photo to depict what appeared to be the same male depicted in the profile pictures for "Richboy Robinson" and "DP Robinson." DOT records identified this male as Daniel D. Patrykus [REDACTED]. I ran Patrykus through TIME and found him to have multiple active warrants, which included a felony parole violation. I also found Patrykus to have a non-felony warrant through the Calumet County Sheriff's Department for failure to appear on a retail theft court case, as well a felony warrant for failure to appear on a possession of a firearm charge case through the Marathon County Sheriff's Department.

I contacted Patrykus' DOC agent at approximately 1:34 PM. Patrykus' agent, Jennifer Hadfield (715-697-6439), informed me she is located in Wisconsin Rapids and said Patrykus is wanted for absconding from supervision. Hadfield said she recently acquired Patrykus to her caseload and said an agent last had contact with Patrykus in October 2015. Hadfield provided me a phone number for Patrykus of [REDACTED] which she said Patrykus provided them in September 2015. Hadfield said they also had a note Patrykus' file that in September 2015, he purchased a red Pontiac Sunfire. DOT records show Patrykus' to have three vehicles registered to him, which included a Sunfire with WI plate 369XZH. Hadfield described Patrykus' addresses as "all over the place" but said she did not have any knowledge of ties to Madison.

I called phone number [REDACTED] and left a message for Patrykus, but did not receive returned phone call. At approximately 2:06 PM, I checked the Facebook page of "Richboy Robinson," believed to Patrykus. I sent Patrykus a private Facebook message, which I did receive a response to. I attached copies of this message exchange to this report. Additionally, I later found that Patrykus' Facebook account posted our private message exchange to his timeline. The message exchange was as follows:

Message to Patrykus (2:06 PM):

Daniel- I am a detective with the Madison Police Department. Please call me at 608-266-4887 and ask for Detective Ware. I am looking to talk to you about the incident at East Towne Mall on 6/21/16. Detective Bradley Ware City of Madison Police Department-East District 809 S. Thompson Drive Madison, WI 53716

Response from Patrykus:

I'd rather not

Message to Patrykus:

Okay. As part of this investigation, I am trying to obtain statements from everyone that is willing, to capture as much information as possible for this case. At minimum, I'd like to do as you did with the media and confirm the recorded video was captured by you. Please call me if willing, [REDACTED] My direct number.

Either way, thank you for your time.

Response from Patrykus:

Yes the video was mine. But I do not admit to anything that was said in the video that anyone may allegedly think I said myself¹⁰⁰

Message to Patrykus:

Understood. Can you call me? I won't ask you about what someone said on the video. Just a few questions about your relationship, if any, to the female involved.

Response from Patrykus:

Don't know her

Message to Patrykus (Seen at 3:02 PM):

Okay. Well, the offer to give a statement is open if you decide to take it. [REDACTED]

Take care.

Disposition

I disseminated a bulletin with vehicle information to the Madison Police Department about Patrykus' wanted status. Additionally, I found that Patrykus tagged a female subject in his initial Facebook post, who was listed on Facebook as "Kenee Glo Washington." The video actually pans to this female during the longer, 6+ minute video. Madison Police records and Summit jail records show Kenee S. Washington [REDACTED] to not have a permanent address or current working phone number. I included Washington's information in the bulletin and asked to be notified if Washington is contacted.

Police to conduct internal review following mall arrest

Group protests after video of mall arrest goes viral

Published On: Jun 21 2016 10:39:03 PM CDT Updated On: Jun 22 2016 12:54:31 PM CDT

MADISON, Wis. -

Protesters gathered outside the Public Safety Building Tuesday night in response to a video of an 18-year-old getting arrested at East Towne Mall that went viral.

Madison police confirms to News 3 Wednesday that the department will conduct an interval review. The department also scheduled a news conference at 1 p.m. Wednesday.

Madison police were sent to the food court area of East Towne Mall around 5:15 p.m. after receiving reports that mall security said a woman was “out of control and making threats.”

Officers who arrived at the mall said 18-year-old Genele H. Laird was agitated and animated, according to a release. Laird allegedly confronted an employee at Taco Bell, claiming her phone had been stolen, and then displayed a knife and threatened the employee.

When mall security responded, they said Laird refused to leave until she got her phone back, officials said. Laird made numerous threats to kill the security staff, so they called 911.

Madison Police Department officers attempted to arrest Laird, who actively resisted all of their attempts, fought with officers, spit in one of the officer's face, and tried to kick and scratch both officers, according to the release. Laird was eventually arrested outside the mall with the use of a stun gun.

A video was taken during the arrest and posted to Facebook. That video went viral Tuesday night, which led to the protest outside the Public Safety Building. The video was later taken down from that Facebook account. However, the same video was posted and is available on YouTube. The video was provided with permission from Dan Patrykus.

Family and friends of Laird and state and city officials spoke with MPD Chief Mike Koval Tuesday night, who said they would get to the bottom of the situation.

"The chief will investigate internally and the DA will be investigating and so it will take a few days for all the evidence to be gathered and witnesses to be interviewed," said alder Marsha Rummel.

"You have four alders here - a state rep - so from a medical perspective we want to understand what happened, what happened to police officers what happened to this young lady what the process is going to be," Boys and Girls CEO Michael Johnson said. "I think it was important tonight to let the family know there was due process."

Madison police confirmed to News 3 that the department will conduct an interval review of the incident.

The two officers were taken to the hospital for their injuries, according to the release. They were treated and released.

Laird was arrested on tentative charges of disorderly conduct while armed with a knife, resisting police causing injury, battery to a police officer and discharge of bodily fluid.

NARRATIVE:Squad Video: Laird Conveyance

I reviewed the squad video from Officer Andrew Muir's squad #539. This video captured the arrest and brief transport of Genele H. Laird from East Towne Mall to the west side of the mall parking lot. After Laird was placed in the squad, she took her spit hood off by shaking her head, which Officer Muir announced to other officers.

Officer Muir appeared to move his squad to the parking lot on the west side of Sears, at East Towne Mall. During the transport, Laird made several unsolicited statements. At approximately 17:28:41, Laird shouted, "You fucking tased me. This shit is still strapped to me. Can you take it the fuck off?" Laird continued in this manner then screamed, "Take it off," followed by a loud, lengthy scream. Officer Muir then stopped his squad. Laird repeatedly shouted for Officer Muir to take the electronic control device probes off. Laird continued to shout, "Take it off!" Laird then banged her head against the back, hard plastic seat approximately 7-8 times. Officer Muir told Laird not to "head bang like that." Laird repeatedly stated, "I can't be calm unless I'm alone."

Laird continued to strike the back of her head against the seat and scream/cry. An officer can be heard asking, "Is she still spitting and screaming?" Laird stated, "I'm not spitting. I'm not spitting. You don't know what you're talking about. I spit at you once!" (17:31:30). Laird was then removed from Officer Muir's squad. I was informed by Lt. Amy Chamberlain that all squad video was preserved as evidence.

[REDACTED] Emails

NARRATIVE:

[REDACTED]

On 6/22/16 at approximately 5:34 PM, I called [REDACTED] at phone number [REDACTED] the phone number we had on file for her. I initially called [REDACTED] but was informed she was not working. I also knew from this investigation that [REDACTED] lives [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] told me that she viewed the video of Facebook that captured the arrest of Genee Laird at East Towne Mall on 6/21/16. [REDACTED] also told me that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] verified that she is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] told me this iPhone was not the phone that Laird confronted [REDACTED] about stealing.

[REDACTED] said the phone Laird confronted [REDACTED] about stealing was a black Samsung Galaxy S7. [REDACTED] said this phone was paid for and is on Laird's account, but was being used by Laird's ex-boyfriend, who [REDACTED] would only identify as "Vincent." [REDACTED] said she didn't want to give me Vincent's name and information without his permission. [REDACTED] said Laird talked to Vincent about his phone being stolen and Vincent told her "don't worry about it." [REDACTED] said it was the theft of this phone that caused Laird to confront [REDACTED] at Taco Bell. I encouraged [REDACTED] to have Laird report the phone stolen through [REDACTED] Police Department.

[REDACTED] also told me she captured a video on her phone of Laird armed with a knife in the food court area. [REDACTED] said she didn't initially see the knife when this occurred but upon reviewing her photos and the video on the phone, she observed Laird to have a knife in the video. [REDACTED] told me, "I didn't even really know." [REDACTED] identified Laird as "acting crazy" and stated, "I don't think she's crazy. She just really overreacted." [REDACTED] told me she wanted to turn over this video because this incident is being made out to be a "race thing." [REDACTED] said this isn't what she wants and this isn't what Laird would want.

[REDACTED] identified her email address as [REDACTED] and said she would email me the video, as she had already planned to give the video to Chief Michael Koval. I emailed [REDACTED] at approximately 5:50 PM on 6/22/16 and requested she send me the video. I left [REDACTED] a message on 6/23/16 at approximately 12:47 PM, again requesting that she send me any videos or photos she has of the disturbance involving Laird.

On 6/23/16 at approximately 1:13 PM, I received an email from [REDACTED] which included a video file of Laird throwing a cup of fluid at security officers in the parking lot of East Towne Mall, outside of the food court. At approximately 1:31 PM, ██████ sent me single photo of Laird leaning over the counter at Taco Bell. I spoke to ██████ by phone at approximately 2:35 PM on 6/23/16. ██████ told me she used her cell phone to record the video of Laird outside of the food court in the parking lot, when she was arguing with security. ██████ said when she saw this happen in person, she did not observe Laird to be armed with a knife, but after Laird's arrest, she heard Laird was found with a knife. ██████ told me she reviewed the video and upon this review, observed Laird to have a reflective object that she believed could be a knife in her left hand. When I asked ██████ if Laird was carrying a phone at that time, ██████ said the reflective object could also be a phone, but upon video review, she thought it was a knife. ██████ said she didn't see Laird with a knife prior to going to the mall and didn't know where Laird had the knife concealed.

I reviewed the video file from ██████. The video is approximately 13 seconds in length and shows Laird in the parking lot outside of the mall. Laird has an object in her left hand, which she is holding at chest level, but I was unable to decipher what the object is from the video. Laird is also holding what appears to be a cup of fluid. Laird shouts, "Permits! Where's your fucking permits?" Laird then flings the fluid from the cup at two East Towne Mall security guards, Rosemary Skarsky and Nicholas Bauer. The fluid lands near Bauer, but the video is not focused directly on Bauer when it impacts. Bauer responds, "Really? Really bitch?" Laird responds, "Yes, bitch!" Laird then walks away.

The photo that ██████ told me she took of Laird at Taco Bell depicts Laird leaned over the Taco Bell counter with what ██████ said appeared to be an object in her hand. I reviewed this image and found it to be blurry and could not determine what is in Laird's hand at the moment this image was taken. ██████ said she did not see Laird with a knife at the time that she took this photo.

██████ told me she went to record Laird at Taco Bell because she thought it would be comical to capture Laird confronting ██████ about stealing her phone. ██████ said she also intended to put in on Snapchat, but accidentally took a photo instead of a video. ██████ told me she captured Laird on video outside the mall to document it for herself, as to capture what was going to happen. ██████ mentioned that a lot of people record things for social media these days.

██████ told me she didn't know the male (Patrykus) who recorded Laird's arrest, but said she remembered seeing him with a black female in a white dress. ██████ said Laird seemed to know this female as when police when to talk to her (Laird), she told this other female, "Okay. Bye, girl." ██████ said she didn't know Patrykus or the female with him.

I downloaded the video and image to from ██████ to CD, which I properly tagged in the East District Property Room on 6/23/16. I properly tagged this CD under tag # 368395 and secured it in locker # 40 at approximately 3:37 PM. I attached the emails from ██████ to this report.

NARRATIVE:Shelly Thompson

On 6/23/16, I received a voicemail message from Shelly Thompson, who requested I contact her about the East Towne Mall Incident. In her message, Thompson said she obtained my information from social media and wanted to give her statement about what she witnessed, as she was present for the arrest portion of events with Laird from 6/21/16.

I spoke with Shelly K. Thompson by phone at approximately 10:55 AM on 6/23/16. Thompson identified herself verbally and told me she currently resides in Stanley, Wisconsin, where she works as a social worker at Stanley Correctional. Thompson told me she has never worked as a law enforcement officer. Stanley provided her cell phone number as [REDACTED]

Thompson told me she was present at East Towne Mall on 6/21/16. Thompson said she and four co-workers were in town for training and went to Barnes and Noble at the mall. Thompson said she exited Barnes and Noble and went to the "front door" of the mall. Thompson said upon exiting the mall, she observed the involved female, who I know to be Genee Laird, standing off to the side. Thompson described Laird as "calm at the time." Thompson said Laird asked, "I'd like to go now. Is it okay if I leave?" Thompson said there was one police officer with Laird at this time and he responded, "No, ma'am." Thompson described this male officer as "calm and appropriate."

Thompson said about one minute later, this same officer asked Laird to put her hands behind her back. Thompson said Laird did not cooperate with the officer and described that Laird spread her feet and folded her arms. Thompson described the officer as having one of Laird's hands behind her back and told me, "She was physically resistive." Thompson said the officer told Laird, "Ma'am. I need you to put your arms behind your back." Thompson told me at this time, she (Thompson) backed against a nearby wall, as she was not involved and didn't want the resistance to come around her. Thompson said she was 10-15 feet from the incident when she witnessed it.

Thompson said at this point, she saw another officer run up. Thompson told me, "What I saw them do was very appropriate." Thompson explained that she was trying to describe what she observed based on what she witnessed, not on the internet video that she viewed. Thompson said each officer positioned themselves on each side of Laird and said it looked like the officers were trying to position their legs in front of Laird. Thompson told me, "She was refusing." Thompson also described this as an "appropriate tactic to go to the ground." Thompson said at this point, she remembered thinking, "How is she that strong?" Thompson told me, "They did not beat her up or throw her to the ground." Thompson stated, "Personally, I don't think there was any violence."

Thompson said while on the ground with Laird, she heard one officer state "stop pinching me" or "stop scratching me." Thompson said she then "saw the spit." Thompson described Laird as down on the ground, on her side, and said Laird raised her head up and spit at the officers. Thompson told me, "I could see the spit fly." Thompson said an officer stated, "Do not spit at me again," and described the officers as being on both sides of Laird, trying to get her arms behind her back. Thompson said the officers were able to place Laird in handcuffs and saw her carried into a squad, which then left. Thompson said she heard Laird state, "I hurt my ankle," but said she didn't hear Laird complaining of being unable to breathe until she saw it on the internet video.

Thompson told me she did not see any disturbance in the food court and never saw Laird with a knife. Thompson said she remembered seeing Laird with a phone, which she said fell to the ground, but not a weapon. Thompson said she remembered another female with Laird who asked Laird if she wanted her to call her mother. Thompson said she also observed the male recording the video during Laird's arrest, but didn't remember hearing him say anything at the time.

Thompson said she would provide my contact information to the other four co-workers and let them decide if they wanted to give a statement. Thompson said these co-workers were with her and would not have seen anything that occurred in the food court prior to police contact with Laird. Thompson told me she was disturbed by this incident, though not by the officers' actions. Thompson told me she is from a rural area and doesn't see this type of incident every day.

Dane County Jail Video: Laird

On 6/27/16 at approximately 3:23 PM, I went to the records department for the Dane County Sheriff's Department and picked up a copy of Laird's arrest processing video at the Dane County Jail from 6/21/16. I was provided a copy of the video on DVD by Lt. Alecia Rauch. I attached a copy of the records release form to this report. I was also notified that the release of this video should only be handled through the Dane County Sheriff's Office.

I maintained custody of this CD then property tagged it in the East District Property Room on 6/27/16 at approximately 8:46 PM. I property tagged this item under tag #368561 and secured it in evidence locker #40.

Video Review

I reviewed the booking video and did not locate anything of evidentiary value. The video shows a marked SUV arrive at approximately 19:33 on 6/21/16. Laird is removed from the squad at 19:36 and seated in the sally port arrest processing area. Laird is escorted into the jail booking area at 19:47 and searched by a female deputy at 19:49. Laird is eventually taken in the holding cell area of the jail at approximately 20:11.

NARRATIVE:Bonnie Dowd

On 6/29/16 at approximately 2:13 PM, I spoke with Bonnie J. Dowd [REDACTED] by phone. I was informed by Det. Kris Acker that she knew Dowd and that Dowd was present for the disturbance at East Towne Mall on 6/21/16. Dowd also told me she has not viewed the viral video of this incident as of 6/29/16.

Dowd told me she works at the Hallmark Store at East Towne Mall and on 6/21/16, worked until about 5 PM. Dowd said she left Hallmark a few minutes late so she believed the disturbance she observed was between 5:05 PM and 5:20 PM. Dowd told me she went to exit the mall through the food court entrance and upon entering the food court area, heard yelling. Dowd said she heard yelling in the area of Subway and Taco Bell, but didn't pay attention to who was in the group itself. Dowd described the yelling as "arguing" and said she heard "something about a cell phone," but didn't know who said it. Dowd said she also saw a "flash" but didn't know what it was. Dowd estimated the size of the group arguing as 4-5 people and said she didn't know if the group contained mall security. Dowd said she saw "the girl," who Dowd said later struggled with police (who I know to be Genele Laird), run away from Taco Bell. Dowd clarified that Laird "walked away quickly" from Taco Bell, towards the food court exit to the parking lot. Dowd said she saw Laird put something in her backpack, but didn't see what the item was.

Dowd told me she stopped in the restroom so didn't see anything else that occurred inside the mall. Dowd said she then exited the mall through the food court doors. Dowd said when she exited the mall, she observed one police officer on scene and said the officer was physically engaged with Laird. Dowd said this officer had Laird's hands behind her back and described his hands as being on Laird's, with both of them standing. Dowd said she heard the officer tell Laird to put her hands behind her back and told me, "She was fighting. Kicking. Screaming." Dowd said she then walked towards the exterior door for Barnes and Noble when she heard a second officer arrive. Dowd estimated she was 20-30 feet away from Laird and the officers at this point. Dowd described herself as on the opposite side of the second officer that arrived.

Dowd said when the second officer arrived, she heard him shout, "Put your hands behind your back. Dowd said it appeared the second officer was trying to pull her hand out to put behind Laird's back while they were standing. Dowd said the second officer then used this leg and "swept" Laird to the ground. Dowd told me, "It looked like she went down gently." Dowd said once Laird was on the ground, an officer went on each side of her. Dowd said the second officer then tried to "pry her arm with his knee." Dowd described Laird as "kicking and screaming" the whole time and stated, "She was really loud." Dowd told me she also recalled hearing Laird state, "I'll bite you."

Dowd said she didn't want to get involved and mentioned a recent shooting at East Towne Mall. Dowd said she continued walking and entered an employee entrance by Barnes and Noble. Dowd told me she did not view the rest of the incident and told me, "I kept walking."

Dowd said she heard Laird had a knife and recalled seeing her with a "shiny object" but wasn't sure if it was a knife or a phone. Dowd said she remembered seeing Laird throw a phone to the ground during the incident.

My phone interview with Dowd concluded at approximately 2:26 PM.

On 6/30/16 at approximately 3:20 PM, I spoke with Hailey S. Bowman [REDACTED] by phone. Bowman identified herself verbally as a social worker at Stanley Correctional and said she resides in Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin. Bowman told me on 6/21/16, she was at East Towne Mall with three other co-workers from Stanley Correctional (Thompson, Krenz, and Hanson). Bowman told me she was at Barnes and Noble and exited the mall through the food court entrance. Bowman said when she exited the mall, she observed the female who struggled with police, who I know to be Genele Laird, standing off to the side. Bowman said one police officer was talking to her and said she heard Laird ask, "Can we just file this under police contact and go?" Bowman said the officer told Laird she could not leave and told her to put her hands behind her back. Bowman told me, "She was resisting." Bowman told Laird had her hands behind her back at one point, while standing, but said the officer could not get a handcuff on her. Bowman told me, "She started fighting more." Bowman said Laird started flailing her arms and body around as the officer was trying to place her in handcuffs.

Bowman said a second police officer arrived to help and told me, "They struggled with her." Bowman said the first police officer used his legs to get Laird down on the ground by kneeling her and wrapping his leg around Laird's to control her. Bowman said at this point, Laird and the two officers went to the ground. Bowman said the officers "wrestled with her some more" on the ground. Bowman said while on the ground, Laird was on her stomach and was yelling obscenities, but Bowman could not remember specifically what Laird yelled. Bowman said while Laird was on the ground, she twisted her body around and spit in the first officer's face. Bowman said that officer then took out his electronic control device, which she referred to as a "taser," and stated, "You spat at me." Bowman said it looked like the officer "tased" Laird on her leg. Bowman said Laird screamed but continued to resist. Bowman described the officers as being on Laird's sides, "fighting" with Laird's arms to get them behind her back. Bowman said Laird was pulling her arms out. Bowman said at this point, the officer "tased" Laird again.

Bowman said the officers were then able to get Laird in handcuffs while she was on her stomach. Bowman said she remembered seeing an older male telling Laird to "calm down." Bowman described this male as a middle-aged black male. Bowman said the officers put a spit hood on Laird then picked her up and placed her in a squad car.

Bowman told me she didn't see any sort of disturbance inside the mall or food court, but said her co-worker, Laura Krenz, left the mall ahead of her and saw Laird arguing with security. Bowman told me she used her cell phone to record Laird's struggle with officers, as well as a short recording after. Bowman sent me both videos via Facebook messenger at approximately 6:15 PM. I downloaded these videos to CD and later property tagged the CD under tag #368840. I secured this item in locker #40 in the East District Property Room.

Bowman told me that she saw the video on Facebook of this incident with police and remembered seeing the male recording it. Bowman said she heard the threats this male made on the video, but didn't hear them at the time. Bowman told me that her video captured "the same thing," but from a different angle. Bowman told me that when watching the video on the internet, she saw one of the officers punch Laird, which she didn't witness in person. Bowman told me she didn't view the punching as "excessively hard" and also mentioned that he husband is a police officer.

Laura Krenz

On 6/30/16 at approximately 4:45 PM, I spoke with Laura D. Krenz [REDACTED] by phone. Krenz identified herself verbally and said she works in the records department at Stanley Correctional. Krenz also told me she currently resides in Tadott, Wisconsin. Krenz told me on 6/21/16, she was at East Towne Mall with three other co-workers, as they were in town for training. Krenz said she was at Barnes and Noble and when she exited the mall, she observed one police officer with the female who was later arrested, who I know to be Genele Laird. Krenz said she observed the officer and Laird facing the parking lot and heard the officer tell Laird, "Stop resisting." Krenz said Laird was "struggling" with this officer and said she observed a second officer arrive. Krenz said the second officer assisted the first officer in trying to get Laird's hands behind her back, but said the officer could not get Laird's hands in handcuffs. Krenz said Laird "looked like she was trying to keep her hands from getting cuffed." Krenz described Laird as resisting and "wiggling" her body, which Krenz described as Laird flailing her shoulders. Krenz said she remembered the officers saying "a bunch of stop resisting."

Krenz said the second officer put his knee towards Laird's abdomen to get her to bend over and get her to the ground. Krenz said the officer put his knee to Laird's abdomen twice and she went to the ground. Krenz said while on the ground, Laird was "half on and half off" the sidewalk. Krenz stated, "She was still fighting." Krenz said she remembered hearing the second officer state, "Stop pinching me," which Krenz said the officer stated twice. Krenz said she observed Laird then turn her abdomen and spit "right in his face," referring to the officer.

Krenz said the second officer then grabbed his "taser" and had to reposition it a few times, which included on Laird's abdomen, thigh, then lower leg. Krenz described this as the officer "trying to find a solid part." Krenz said she didn't believe the officer deployed his electronic control device during this repositioning, as Laird didn't scream. Krenz said by the fourth ECD reposition on Laird's body, Laird then screamed. Krenz said she believed the officer deployed the ECD in Laird's lower leg. Krenz said another officer then arrived and placed a spit hood on Laird and she was carried to a squad car.

Krenz told me she was not disturbed by what happened. When I asked her to elaborate on this, she said she wasn't disturbed by the officers' actions, as they asked Laird to stop resisting "plenty of times." Krenz told me their actions "seemed like protocol." Krenz told me she was 25-30 feet away from the officers and Laird when she observed this incident.

Krenz told me she didn't witness anything inside the mall, but said a few minutes before witnessing Laird's contact with police, which Krenz said was at most five minutes earlier, she observed Laird with mall security. Krenz said she observed Laird outside when she went to check for their ride. Krenz said Laird was outside the mall and said she observed Laird take the top off her fountain drink and throw it at mall security. Krenz told me, "I saw her throw her drink in their face.” Krenz also said Laird was “screaming profanities” but could remember what she said.

Krenz told me she did not record the incident and said only Hailey Bowman, from their group, recorded the incident. Krenz said another co-worker, Beth Hanson (ph) was their driver and was getting the car when this incident happened, but didn’t believe Hanson saw any of it.

NARRATIVE:Beth Hanson

On 7/7/16 at approximately 2:39 PM, I spoke with Beth D. Hanson [REDACTED] by phone. Hanson identified herself verbally as a social worker at Stanley Correctional in Stanley Wisconsin and said she was at East Towne Mall on 6/21/16 with her co-workers, Hailey Bowman, Shelly Thompson, and Laura Krenz. I previously interviewed all of these co-workers by phone.

Hanson told me on 6/21/16, she dropped off Bowman, Thompson, and Krenz at the main entrance to the mall. Hanson said she intended to walk around the mall parking lot while her co-workers were in the mall. Hanson said when she dropped off her co-workers, she observed one squad car and officer near the front mall entrance. Hanson told me she observed the officer behind a female, as if she was in handcuffs, and described both the officer and the female (Laird), as "calm." Hanson said traffic was congested so she parked in one of the parking lot rows, which Hanson described as one over from where the officer was. Hanson told me, "I really just saw the cop car."

Hanson told me after she parked her vehicle, she heard sirens and eventually saw 3-4 officers with Laird. Hanson also said she observed Laird with a spit hood on. Hanson said she saw the officers carry Laird and described her as "stiff as a board." Hanson said she also saw two mall officers, and remembered one was holding a brown purse. Hanson said she didn't see any other parts of the incident, including any sort of disturbance inside the food court prior to police arrival.
