Becoming Public: Tools for New Alders

Consider:

Who benefits? Who is burdened?

Who does not have a voice at the table?

How can policymakers mitigate unintended consequences?

Common Council alders-elect have been invited to participate in a session designed to give an opportunity to explore what it means to go from being a private individual to a public official on Thursday, April 10, at 6:00 PM in Room 206 of the Madison Municipal Building. Alders-elect will explore how to navigate nuanced power dynamics and balance competing needs in leadership and policymaking. The session is part of the orientation for alders-elect. A possible quorum of the Common Council may exist at this event.
