

Youth Programming

Black Men Coalition

Eligibility: Open to Madison youth

Availability: Year round

Details: FREE youth sports leagues for underserved youth in the community

Address: 5 North Pinckney Street, Madison

Phone: (608) 590-9625

Centro Hispano of Dane County

Eligibility: Latinos in grades 9-12

Availability: School year

Details: Serves Latinos in grades 9-12 promoting economic mobility through increasing academic achievement, facilitating career planning and provided information about advanced careers. The components of the program include tutoring, career workshops, guest speakers, resume building workshops, ACT/SAT prep and summer internships. The Escalera program operates in East and West High School in Madison.

Phone: (608) 255-0318

www.micentro.org/escalera.html

Just Dane Just Connections

Eligibility: Open to Madison youth affected by incarceration

Availability: Year round

Mentoring Connections is designed to invest in the future of youth in Dane County who are affected by parental incarceration. Youth are matched with a caring, adult mentor, who spends time with them each week and develops a connection that can last a lifetime.

Phone: (608) 256-0906

<https://justdane.org/just-connections/>

Madison area Out-of-School Time

Eligibility: Open to Madison youth

Availability: Summer and year round

Details: Academic support, arts, career and college exploration, sports, leadership, life skills, mentoring, literacy, recreation, STEM, service learning, and employment

<https://mostmadison.org/programs>

Madison School & Community Recreation (MSCR)

Eligibility: Open to Madison youth

Availability: Year round

Details: provides basketball, softball, and soccer leagues, along with swimming and outdoor activities.

Phone: (608) 204-3000

Madison Public Library

Eligibility: Open to Madison youth

Availability: Year round

Details: “Madison Public Library’s nine locations provide free, fun entertainment year round. Bring your family to the library to read, play, learn, or participate in programs for all ages.”

Address: Nine branch libraries around Madison, main library, 201 W. Mifflin Street, Madison.

www.madisonpubliclibrary.org/spaces/families

Urban League of Greater Madison

Eligibility: Open to Madison youth

Availability: Year round

Details: Offers Schools of Hope tutoring and 21st Century Careers, focusing on college and career readiness.

Urban Triage

Elibility:

Availability: Year round

Details: Support youth navigating housing instability, involvement in systems, and major life transitions through wraparound support. This includes mentorship, leadership development, life-skills education, systems navigation, emotional wellness support, and pathways to stability and self-determination. Drop-in hours Monday - Friday from 9:00am - 4:30 pm

Phone: (608) 299-4128

Address: 2312 S. Park Street, Madison

www.urbantriage.org

Wanda Fullmore Internship

Eligibility: Open to Madison youth

Availability: Summer

Details: Summer internship with the City of Madison through a partnership with Commonwealth Development

Phone: (608) 266-6520

www.cityofmadison.com/dpced/community-development/community-resources/youth-programming

Before you head out: Sometimes, hours of services and supplies change. Before you head to a destination in this guide, Call 211 or use their app to verify the information.

