

COMMUNITY PUBLIC SAFETY MEETING

Please join Ald. Barbara Harrington-McKinney, the Madison Police Department and fellow neighbors for a conversation about safety in our community. Concerns about auto thefts, thefts from autos and burglaries committed by groups of juveniles will be key topics of discussion.

Wednesday,
October 24, 2018

6:30-8:30 pm

Our Redeemer
Lutheran Church
Community Room

1701 McKenna Boulevard

- » West Police District command staff will give an overview of crime trends in the city and the district.
- » Learn what the police are doing and the challenges they face when investigating property crimes.
- » Hear from MPD's Crime Prevention officer and detectives from the Burglary Crime Unit and Violent Crime Unit. They will present information on personal and home safety and offer strategies residents can use to help prevent property crimes.
- » Question and answer period.

Special Guests

- » Madison Police Chief Mike Koval
- » Honorable Shelley Gaylord, Dane County District Court Judge

Questions? Contact Ald. Barbara Harrington-McKinney, district1@cityofmadison.com, (608) 205-8682.