CITY OF MADISON

Common Citywide Collaborations

The Mayor works with all agencies across the city to guide and support their projects and programs. Areas of work that are centered in the Mayor's office include:

- Management team - department heads meet biweekly to discuss Citywide issues, share work plans, find opportunities for collaboration and reflect on past projects for process improvement.

- Budget – supported by the Finance Department, the Mayor works with all agencies to craft the annual capital and operating budgets and to do long range budget planning.

- Appointments – the Mayor appoints Alders and residents to the City's boards, commissions and committees.

- Sustainability – the Mayor's office leads city-wide sustainability work, collaborating with a range of agencies to reduce our greenhouse gas footprint and increase resilience.
