Natalie Erdman, Director (608) 267-8730

The Office of the Director is responsible for the overall leadership and management of the Department and aligning the activities of the agency's five divisions in the pursuit of the Department's mission and community-building goals set by the Mayor and Common Council. The Director of Planning and Community and Economic Development leads this Division and serves as the Secretary of the City's Plan Commission. The Division also provides centralized administrative support such as word processing, telephone and visitor reception, public information production and coordination, and consultation on Division and Department initiatives to improve systems and customer service.
