

Need Help Buying Groceries? Call 877-366-3635 today!

Are you finding it hard to make ends meet? Have you ever had to choose between buying groceries and paying your other bills? FoodShare Wisconsin may be able to help. FoodShare is a nutrition assistance program that uses the QUEST card to help people with limited income purchase groceries.

It's easier than ever to apply! Call a friendly FoodShare Helpline volunteer toll-free at 877-366-3635. The volunteer will go through an eligibility screening with you and then make an appointment to meet a trained specialist that will help you complete the application for free. In order for your application to be processed more quickly, the specialist can also help you copy and send in all of the required documentation. You can even use the same application to help you apply for state healthcare and child care benefits.

Using FoodShare not only helps you, but it also brings your tax dollars back into your community, thus boosting the local economy. Call today!
