Subject: Community Development Division 2020 Capital Budget Recommendations

I am forwarding, for your consideration, the Community Development Division's 2020 capital-spending requests.

This request, like those in the preceding 5 years, focuses primarily on sustaining efforts to improve housing options for Madison residents who struggle with housing stability. Despite the surge in residential development that has occurred in Madison in recent years, including the addition of more than 1100 rental housing units made possible by City investments through the Affordable Housing Fund, rental markets remain tight and households with more modest means continue to struggle to find quality housing. For them, inadequate housing options remain one of the greatest obstacles to shared success and prosperity. Accordingly, CDD's capital budget continues to rank the production of new housing stock as its top priority.

Securing a home is not the only housing challenge confronting Madison residents. Rising costs associated with making needed repairs, paying property taxes and financing a home purchase confront households every day. CDD deploys an array of consumer lending programs for eligible households who may not be able to access private lending markets for resources needed to complete home improvements, pay property taxes or become a homeowner. The maintenance of these small but effective programs, which supplement state and federal resources, are the Division's second priority.

The CDD recommendations include a new project – new, at least, with respect to its appearance in the Division's Capital Budget. They address a group of, mostly modest, improvements to the Madison Senior Center that are deemed necessary to maintain the facility as a safe, inviting and well-functioning environment for visitors, volunteers and staff. In the past, Center improvements have been budgeted within Engineering's Facilities Management Budget. Facilities Management staff have reviewed these projects and cost estimates, however, on the advice of the City's Budget Director, they will now be identified within the Community Development budget.

Before I close, I'd like to bring to your and the Mayor's attention two topics that I think are relevant less for 2020 than the 5 years of the CIP. They pertain to future needs associated with housing and with the City's support for investments in community facilities.

Working with other City agencies and community stakeholders, CDD is in the process of updating its Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing Choice Report. I expect the information and recommendations that flow from it will help shape the new administration's future housing policies and capital budget decisions. The Mayor may choose to expand or modify existing programs, or add new initiatives. However, I think it important to caution that the current annual funding commitment for the Affordable Housing Fund, which has not changed in the 5 years since its inception, cannot sustain even the current level of activities. Despite its success, rising development costs threaten to erode the Fund's effectiveness. I would like to make this suggestion – should any tax increment financing districts scheduled to close in the next five years exceed the revenue projections contained in the 2019 CIP, the excess should go to expand the Affordable Fund rather than displace General Obligation borrowing.

Finally, though the Mayor's budget instructions does not appear to allow it, I would like to raise the prospect of creating a new program in CDD to assist capital projects designed to serve or support specific neighborhoods or populations. A Community Facilities Capital Reserve Fund could exist alongside our Community Development Block Grant Reserve Fund to supplement that small resource and support projects that are not CDBG eligible. I envision a flexible resource to be deployed, with Council and Mayoral oversight, in support of projects of varying size and scope, e.g., acquiring space for a teen center, renovating or expanding a community center, able to garner community support. I am not prepared to advance a proposal in the 2020 budget, and there may be accompanying staff needs to consider, but I think such a program would fill a real need in Madison.

I welcome the opportunity in coming weeks to discuss CDD's capital budget proposals and answer any questions you might have.

Project

Description

This project funds the construction of a resident-inspired community facility in the Bridge Lake Point Waunona Neighborhood. The goal of the project is to have a centrallylocated facility providing adequate space to better accommodate public gatherings and broader programming that meets the needs of residents. Progress will be measured by creation of a new facility resulting in increased capacity for uses desired by neighborhood residents and a corresponding increase in the facility's rate of use. The project timeline calls for community engagement in 2019, design completion and initial construction in 2020 and construction completion in 2021.

Is this project currently included in the 2019 CIP? Yes

Strategy Remove barriers to achieving economic stability.

Describe how this project advances the Citywide Element: Comprehensive Plan action item calls for the continued support for neighborhood centers. Once completed, this project will provide the Bridge Lake Point Waunona neighborhoods with an expanded neighborhood center, offering additional programming and services to the community.

What is the justification for this project?

The current BLPW Neighborhood Center (operated at 1910-1917 Lake Point Drive) has inadequate square footage to provide the robust services desired by the community. Through community engagement, CDD supported the partial financing of a new center with additional space and amenities for the community.

Description

This program continues a major initiative to expand and improve the supply of affordable housing in Madison. The program's goal is to leverage other public and private resources to improve and expand the supply of quality, affordable housing accessible to low- and moderate-income households in the City of Madison. Progress will be measured by the production of 200 units of new rental housing serving households with incomes at or below 60 percent of the County's median income. Specific 2020 projects and locations will be determined by Wisconsin Housing and Economic Development Authority's (WHEDA) allocation decisions, which are expected in early 2020. Anticipated construction for those projects successfully receiving support from both the City and WHEDA would likely begin in 2021.
