

How is My Pet Protection ChoiceSM different from My Pet Protection®?

Available only through workplace benefit programs, My Pet Protection Choice offers additional flexibility for pet families, with customizable coverage, deductible and reimbursement levels. Nationwide offers two ready-made employee plans, plus the ability to customize a coverage plan for individual pets and their specific care needs.¹

What is the difference between accident, illness and wellness coverage?

Accident coverage: Support for unexpected injuries such as broken bones, animal attacks, getting hit by a car, poisoning, heatstroke and more.

Illness coverage: Support for when pets get sick such as diabetes, vomiting, cancer and more.

Wellness coverage: Support for proactive care such as vaccinations, microchipping, preventives for fleas and heartworms and more.

Can existing My Pet Protection members switch to My Pet Protection Choice?

Members can make changes to their coverage during the policy renewal period. All changes are subject to underwriting approval. Please note that all My Pet Protection policies will be automatically transitioned to equivalent My Pet Protection Choice policies beginning in 2025.

Is wellness coverage available as a standalone product?

No, Nationwide does not offer standalone wellness coverage. Members can enroll in a new My Pet Protection Choice accident + wellness plan or change to this plan during the renewal period. Any changes to a policy are subject to underwriting approval.
