

5 Important Steps for Women in Leadership

1. Effectively assess your skills
2. Make your intentions known – discreetly
3. Navigate the assertiveness dilemma
4. Partner with your partner
5. Develop informal networking groups and join professional organizations

Enhanced Communication & Effective Leadership Discussion

What is your dominant style?

What impact does your style have on communication?

How does this style impact your leadership?

How can you balance your leadership?

I commit to...

What is your default role?

What impact does your default have on communication?

Which is your least used role?

How can you increase your flexibility with all three roles?

I commit to...

What is your default questioning style?

How does your style impact communication?

What is your level of active listening?

How can you enhance your communication through powerful questions and active listening?

I commit to...