

University Row

Development project results in necessary closure of stop 2600 southbound University Row at University. Metro will reverse the loop from counter-clockwise to clockwise so that Routes 28 and 38 can stop at an improved stop 2398. Metro recommends making this change permanent to improve operations, eliminating several left turns.