

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Map 7

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Table 7

AHI No.	Address	Property Name	Property Type	Resource Type	Year Built	Architectural Form/Style	Architectural Details	Survey Status	Eligibility Recommendation	Additional Comments	Photos
University Avenue at Shorewood Boulevard - Station
None
University Avenue at University Bay Drive - Station
None

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Table 8

AHI No.	Address	Property Name	Property Type	Resource Type	Year Built	Architectural Form/Style	Architectural Details	Survey Status	Eligibility Recommendation	Additional Comments	Photos
University Avenue at Campus Drive - Adjacent to Curb Line Modifications
None

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Table 9

AHI No.	Address	Property Name	Property Type	Resource Type	Year Built	Architectural Form/Style	Architectural Details	Survey Status	Eligibility Recommendation	Additional Comments	Photos
Orchard Street - Eastbound and Westbound Stations
114116	1225 University Avenue	Central Heating Station/Service Building Annex, University of Wisconsin-Madison	University building	Service building	1908	Neoclassical	4-story brick building; basilica-like design; prominent two-tiered front pediment; dentil details under eaves and central pediment; stone arch and keystone details over front entrance; flat arches over 4/4 sash windows	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Potentially eligible	Distinctive example of Neoclassical architecture on UW-Madison campus; may also have significance for association with campus architect Arthur Peabody and consulting architects Laird and Cret; UW-Madison considers the building eligible for the National Register but a formal DOE has not been prepared	24
East Campus Mall - Eastbound and Westbound Stations
Bascom Hill Historic District - Listed on the National Register
102548	821 University Avenue	Vilas Hall for the Communication Arts	University building	University building	1972	Brutalist	Multi-story building; irregular footprint and massing; heavy juxtaposed concrete and brick forms; large spans of aluminum-frame windows; multiple plazas and exterior staircases	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Potentially eligible	May have local architectural significance as an intact example of the Brutalist style and the work of architects Flad and Associates; UW-Madison considers the building eligible for the National Register but a formal DOE has not been prepared	25, 26

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 24. AHI #114116, 1225 University Avenue, Central Heating Station/Service Building Annex, View Southwest

Photo 25. AHI #102548, 821 University Avenue, Vilas Hall, View South

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 26. AHI #102548, 821 University Avenue, Vilas Hall, View Northeast

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Map 10

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Table 10

AHI No.	Address	Property Name	Property Type	Resource Type	Year Built	Architectural Form/Style	Architectural Details	Survey Status	Eligibility Recommendation	Additional Comments	Photos
State Street - Eastbound and Westbound Stations
State Street Historic District - Determined Eligible for the National Register
Capitol Square - Eastbound and Westbound Stations
AHI #16673, Wisconsin State Capitol - Listed on the National Register and a National Historic Landmark
80456	9 W. Main Street	Gramm Jewelry Company	Commercial	Retail/office building	1916	Twentieth Century Commercial	2 stories; brick; shared storefront with AHI #108194; replacement windows; stone lintel; herringbone brick details	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Typical, modest example of early twentieth century commercial vernacular architecture with alterations; nothing to suggest potential historic or architectural significance	27
107258	23 W. Main Street	Madison Bank & Trust	Commercial	Bank	c.1935	N/A	N/A	Not resurveyed - nonextant	N/A	N/A	N/A
107259	25 W. Main Street	Anchor Building	Commercial	Office building	c.1965	N/A	N/A	Not resurveyed - nonextant	N/A	N/A	N/A
108192	1 W. Main Street	Bank of Wisconsin	Bank	Bank	1917	Neoclassical	7-story brick bank building; fluted, Doric pilasters; modern replacement windows; limestone panels; limestone frieze; garland motif and other botanical details; large addition in 1930; modern interior renovations	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	A good example of a Neoclassical-style office building in downtown Madison, but does not possess the same level of architectural interest and integrity as very similar properties in its vicinity from the same period (e.g. AHI #95294 and 109404)	28, 29
108194	7 W. Main Street	Max Cohn Shoe Store and Office Building	Commercial	Retail/office building	1916	Twentieth Century Commercial	2 stories; brick; storefront lengthened to include neighboring property; recessed central entrance; 1/1 replacement windows; stone sills and lintels; decorative brick; elaborate parapet	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Typical, modest example of early twentieth century commercial vernacular architecture with alterations; nothing to suggest potential historic or architectural significance	27
108195	11 W. Main Street	J. J. Coppennell Business Block	Commercial	Retail/office building	1919	Twentieth Century Commercial	3 stories; modern storefront; picture windows; recessed entry; second story picture windows; third story modern replacement windows; simple parapet	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Altered example of early twentieth century commercial vernacular architecture; nothing to suggest potential historic or architectural significance	30
Capitol Loop - Eastbound Doty Street Auxiliary Station
AHI #28441, Dane County Courthouse/Madison City Hall - Determined Eligible for the National Register
Capitol Loop -Westbound Dayton Street Auxiliary Station
None
Brayton Lot - Construction Staging and Future Redevelopment Site
AHI #16109, St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church - Listed on the National Register
102292	1 S. Hancock Street	Our Savior Norwegian Lutheran Church	Church	Church	1897	Gothic Revival	Cruciform footprint; brick; corner pyramidal tower; Gothic arch stained glass window; clapboard siding in third story; decorative Gothic arch lintels; converted to restaurant	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Lacks sufficient architectural interest and integrity within the context of Madison as an example of Gothic Revival religious architecture	31, 32

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Table 10 - cont.

AHI No.	Address	Property Name	Property Type	Resource Type	Year Built	Architectural Form/Style	Architectural Details	Survey Status	Eligibility Recommendation	Additional Comments	Photos
102294	13 S. Hancock Street	None	Residential	House	1920	American Foursquare	2 stories; brick foundation and exterior; hipped roof with central hipped dormer; asymmetrical façade; off-center enclosed porch with hipped roof; wood knee braces; 3/1 sash windows	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Typical example of foursquare form with minimal stylistic details; nothing to suggest potential historic or architectural significance	33
102295	17 S. Hancock Street	Sumner Apartments	Residential	Apartment building	1910	Colonial Revival	3 stories; brick exterior; flat roof with boxed overhanging eaves; stone foundation; full-width three-story front porch; central entry with sidelights; modern windows; bay windows on side elevations	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Altered, nondistinctive example of an early 20th century flat/apartment building with some Colonial Revival influences; nothing to suggest potential historic or architectural significance	34
106085	201 E. Washington Avenue	Wisconsin Office Building/GEF 1	Commercial	Large office building	1972	Contemporary	4 stories; box-like, symmetrical form; heavy concrete massing and framing with bands of tinted windows; recessed central entries on all sides; projecting upper story; windowless first story	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Nondistinctive Brutalist-like office building; not yet 50 years of age and lacks architectural interest; nothing to suggest potential historical significance as a state office building; appears to have served general functions/ purposes	35
107878	407 E. Main Street	Abraham S. Wood House	Residential	House	1853; 1858; 1874; 1898	Italianate	2 stories; irregular footprint from multiple wing additions; Italianate details on porches and windows; eaveline dentils and paired brackets	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Originally a small two-story brick cottage; stylistic details appear to have been added later in the 19th century; does not possess sufficient architectural interest as an example of the Italianate style within the context of Madison to be individually eligible; nothing to suggest potential historical significance	36, 37
114878	202-204 E. Washington Avenue	Burche's Corners	Commercial	Retail building	1930	N/A	N/A	Not resurveyed - nonextant	N/A	N/A	N/A
114880	302 E. Washington Avenue	Capitol Times Newspaper Plant	Commercial	Office building	1927	Twentieth Century Commercial	3 stories; brick; minimal detailing; modern replacement windows; modern addition; parapet removed	Resurveyed - altered appearance	Not eligible	Lacks sufficient architectural interest and integrity; nothing to suggest potential historical significance	38
114881	310 E. Washington Avenue	James B. Bowen House	Residential	House	1857	N/A	N/A	Not resurveyed - nonextant	N/A	N/A	N/A
114884	322 E. Washington Avenue	St. John's Lutheran Church	Church	Church	1905	Neogothic Revival	Stone and brick; gabled roof; pointed arch windows on side elevation; Contemporary brick façade; covered entry; modern windows	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Not an example of any particular architectural style due to modern façade; nothing to suggest potential local religious significance	39, 40
E. Washington Avenue at Blair Street - Station
114922	502 E. Washington Avenue	C. Kershaw House	Residential	House	1889	Queen Anne	2 stories; brick; rectangular footprint; hipped roof with lower front gable; asymmetrical façade; stoop with wooden posts; modern windows; shingles in front gable	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Modest Queen Anne-style house with alterations; lacks sufficient architectural interest and integrity; nothing to suggest potential historical significance	41
114923	506 E. Washington Avenue	L.J. Farwell House	Residential	House	1853	Vernacular	N/A	Not resurveyed - loss of integrity	Not eligible	Replacement siding, replacement windows, modified front entry	42

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Table 10 - cont.

AHI No.	Address	Property Name	Property Type	Resource Type	Year Built	Architectural Form/Style	Architectural Details	Survey Status	Eligibility Recommendation	Additional Comments	Photos
114924	508 E. Washington Avenue	Thomas Boyd House	Residential	House	1889	Queen Anne	N/A	Not resurveyed - loss of integrity	Not eligible	Altered front porch and entrance; modern addition connected it to the neighboring property (AHI #114925)	43
114925	512 E. Washington Avenue	Thomas Coldeman Residence	Residential	House	1891	Queen Anne	N/A	Not resurveyed - loss of integrity	Not eligible	Altered front porch and entrance; modern addition connected it to the neighboring property (AHI #114924)	43
114926	514-516 E. Washington Avenue	A. Anderson House	Residential	House	1910	Queen Anne	N/A	Not resurveyed - loss of integrity	Not eligible	Replacement siding, replacement windows, loss of façade details	44
114928	607-609 E. Washington Avenue	T.C. Olson Machine Shop/Lavin Grocery	Commercial	Retail building	1915; 1930; 1939; 1945; 1947	Commercial Vernacular	2-story central building with 1-story wings; brick; minimal detailing; altered storefronts; replacement windows; stone sills and lintels on upper story	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Lacks sufficient architectural interest and integrity; nothing to suggest potential historical significance	45

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 27. AHI #80456, 7 and 9 W. Main Street, Retail/Office Buildings, View East

Photo 28. AHI #108192, 1 W. Main Street, Bank of Wisconsin, View South

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 29. AHI #108192, 1 W. Main Street, Bank of Wisconsin, View Northeast

Photo 30. AHI #108195, 11 W. Main Street, Copperey Business Block, View East

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 31. AHI #102292, 1 S. Hancock Street, Our Savior Lutheran Church, View Southeast

Photo 32. AHI #102292, 1 S. Hancock Street, Our Savior Lutheran Church, View East

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 33. AHI #102294, 13 S. Hancock Street, House, View Northeast

Photo 34. AHI #102295, 17 S. Hancock Street, Sumner Apartments, View East

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 35. AHI #106085, 201 E. Washington Avenue, Wisconsin Office Building, View Southwest

Photo 36. AHI #107878, 407 E. Main Street, Abraham S. Wood House, View East

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 37. AHI #107878, 407 E. Main Street, Abraham S. Wood House, View Northeast

Photo 38. AHI #114880, 302 E. Washington Avenue, Capitol Times Newspaper, View West

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 39. AHI #114884, 322 E. Washington Avenue, St. John's Lutheran Church, View West

Photo 40. AHI #114884, 322 E. Washington Avenue, St. John's Lutheran Church, View North

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 41. AHI #114922, 502 E. Washington Avenue, C. Kershaw House, View North

Photo 42. AHI #114923, 506 E. Washington Avenue, L.J. Farwell House, View Northwest

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 43. AHI #114924 and 114925, 508-512 E. Washington Avenue, House, View Northwest

Photo 44. AHI #114926, 514-516 E. Washington Avenue, House, View Northwest

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 45. AHI #114928, 607-609 E. Washington Avenue, Olson Machine Shop/Lavin Grovery, View Southeast

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Map 11

Map Reference: WROC 18" Aerial Imagery, Dane County, WI, 2017, Page Rotation = 315 degrees (Scale 1:5,000)

Job: W-1745; Date Saved: 8/24/2021 3:06:36 PM

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Table 11

AHI No.	Address	Property Name	Property Type	Resource Type	Year Built	Architectural Form/Style	Architectural Details	Survey Status	Eligibility Recommendation	Additional Comments	Photos
E. Washington Avenue at Paterson Street - Station
AHI #108385, Breese Stevens Municipal Athletic Field - Listed on the National Register
AHI #115004, Kleuter Wholesale Grocery Warehouse - Listed on the National Register
114979	825-827 E. Washington Avenue	Madison Fireproof Warehouse	Commercial	Warehouse	1912; 1923; 1940; 1964	Commercial Vernacular	2 stories; brick; three-bay-wide façade with brick pilasters; stone window sills; continuous brick lintels; infilled central front entryway/garage bay; corbeled brick cornice	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Lacks sufficient architectural interest and integrity; nothing to suggest potential historical significance	46
114980	829 E. Washington Avenue	Savidusky's Dry Cleaning	Commercial	Retail building	1924	Tudor Revival	1 story; asymmetrical façade; side gable roof with steeply-pitched front gable dormers; patterned brick; stucco and decorative half-timbering; modern storefront windows	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Lacks sufficient architectural interest and integrity; nothing to suggest potential historical significance	47
114982	841-849 E. Washington Avenue	C.G. McGlashan Wholesale Bakery	Commercial	Industrial building	1917; 1927; 1929	Commercial Vernacular	2 stories with central 3-story tower; brick; minimal detailing; 1.5-story wing; flat roof; stone sills; paired replacement windows	Resurveyed - appearance unchanged	Not eligible	Determined not eligible (2002); lacks sufficient integrity to be eligible due to unsympathetic window replacements and alterations to facade details (e.g. parapet form)	48
E. Washington Avenue at Baldwin Street - Station
AHI #115033, Gisholt Machine Company - Determined Eligible for the National Register
243309	1254 E. Washington Avenue	Smart Studios	Commercial	Recording studio	1918	Commercial Vernacular	2 stories; brick; minimal detailing; chamfered corner entrance; flat arch lintels; stone sills; 1/1 windows; corbeled brick cornice	New Survey	Not eligible	The building was a notable local recording studio in the 1980s and 1990s, but does not appear to have exceptional significance for that association; lacks sufficient architectural interest and integrity	49

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 46. AHI #114979, 825-827 E. Washington Avenue, Madison Fireproof Warehouse, View East

Photo 47. AHI #114980, 829 E. Washington Avenue, Savidusky's Dry Cleaning, View South

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 48. AHI #114982, 841-849 E. Washington Avenue, McGlashan Wholesale Bakery, View Southeast

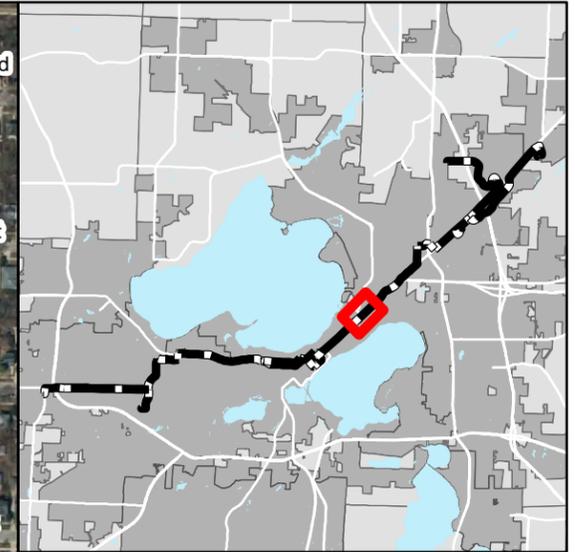

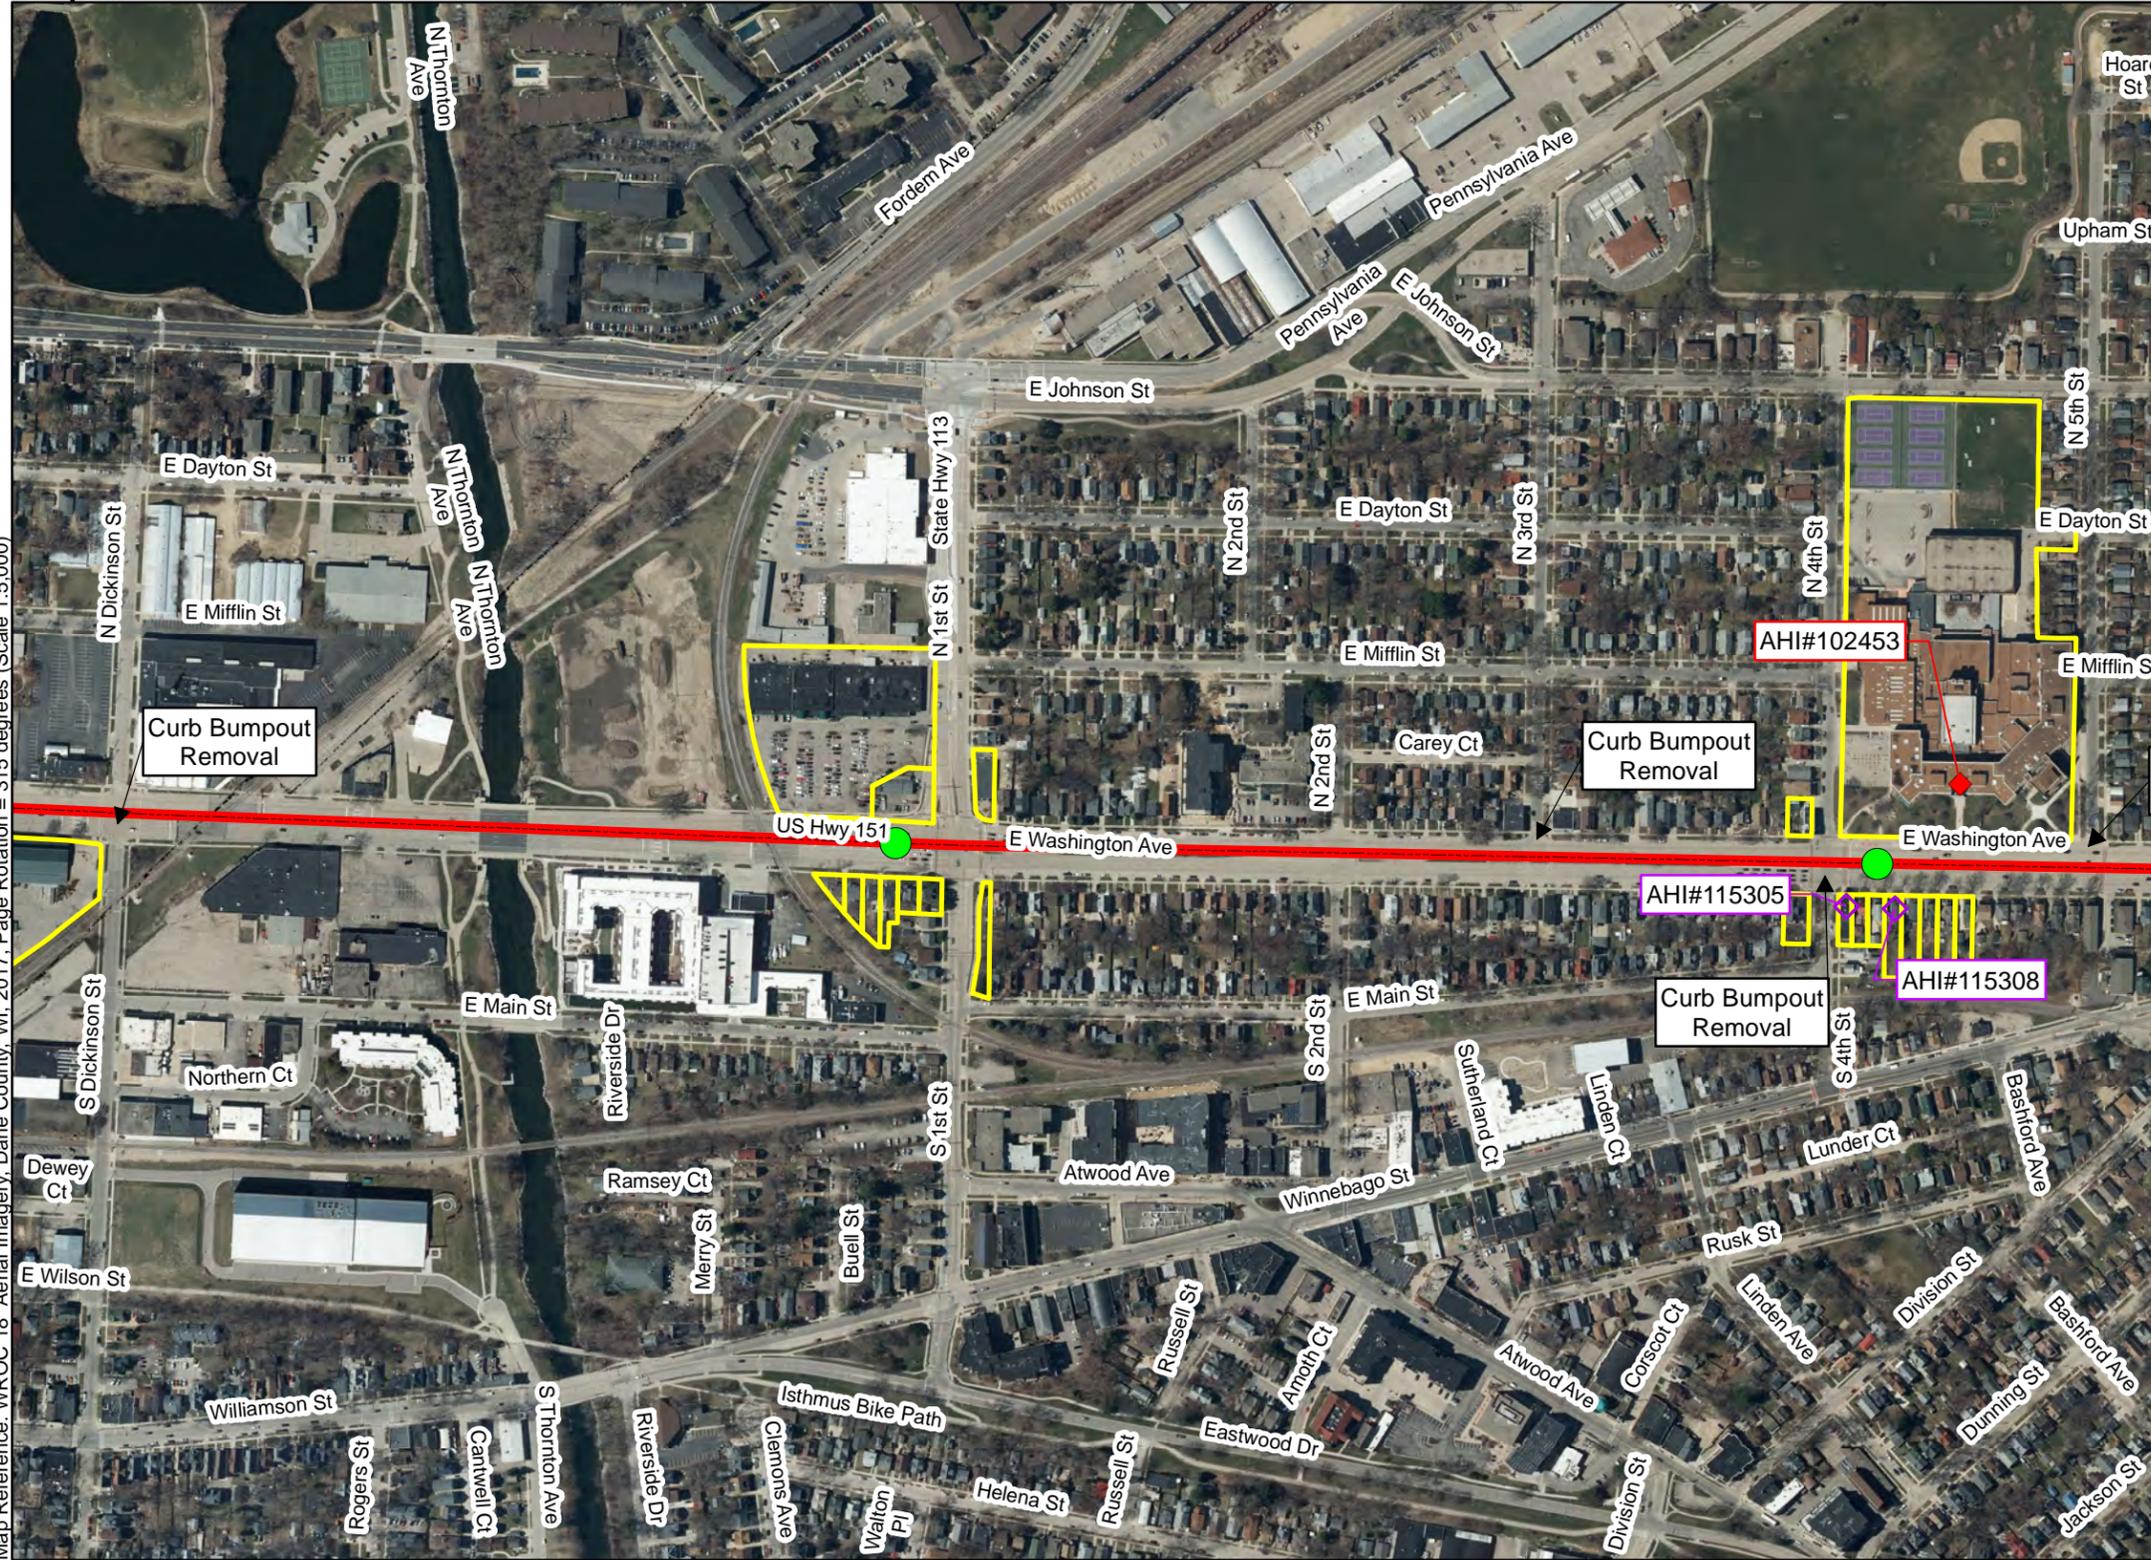

Photo 49. AHI #243309, 1254 E. Washington Avenue, Smart Studios, View North

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Map 12

Map Reference: WROC 18" Aerial Imagery, Dane County, WI, 2017, Page Rotation = 315 degrees (Scale 1:5,000)

- Listed/Determined NRHP Eligible Architectural/Historic Resource
- Not Resurveyed Architectural/Historic Resource
- Proposed Station Location
- Proposed Route Alignment
- Parcel within Area of Potential Effects

Job: W-1745; Date Saved: 8/24/2021 3:06:36 PM

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Table 12

AHI No.	Address	Property Name	Property Type	Resource Type	Year Built	Architectural Form/Style	Architectural Details	Survey Status	Eligibility Recommendation	Additional Comments	Photos
E. Washington Avenue at 1st Street - Station
None
E. Washington Avenue at 4th Street - Station
AHI #102453, Madison East High School - Determined Eligible for the National Register
115305	2205 E. Washington Avenue	Amanda Tourhang Store	Commercial	Retail building	1930	Commercial Vernacular	N/A	Not resurveyed - loss of integrity	Not eligible	Replacement windows within infilled/downsized openings	50
115308	2213 E. Washington Avenue	None	Residential	House	1923	Bungalow	N/A	Not resurveyed - loss of integrity	Not eligible	Replacement siding, replacement windows	51

Architecture/History Survey Report
Madison East-West BRT Project

Photo 50. AHI #115305, 2205 E. Washington Avenue, Amanda Tourhang Store, View East

Photo 51. AHI #115308, 2213 E. Washington Avenue, House, View East

