| 12 | This small, fairly enclosed area is beneath windows of homes of Seniors and others with various disabilities. This is definitely NOT a "public park area" that is suitable for many of the listed "public park areas". Please, PLEASE keep this in mind as you go forward. It has been used for individual and small group activities plus an occasional daytime community activity. Even while this area may now fall under the care of public parks, it remains a small "contained" residential area. Residents appreciate AND value the quiet, "nonpublic" atmosphere. | 4/29/2022 8:26 PM |

| 1 | Places to sit and read. | 5/17/2022 7:50 AM |
| 2 | Just a nice comfy place to sit in the shade. | 5/14/2022 2:50 PM |
| 3 | I live next door, so I'll be visiting daily, regardless. :) But I'm passionate about the possibility of organizing an inclusive, multigenerational, and therapeutic street-dance in the existing courtyard - ideally, BEFORE redevelopment begins next year. It's the perfect space as-is for the kind of activities I have in mind (and have spent some years developing as both a non-profit and for-profit venture). I spoke with the city about our plans (pre-pandemic), and now (post-pandemic, optimistically) it seems even more attractive and timely. And since our purposes are health-related, I'm sure we could rally volunteers (local residents, dance enthusiasts, UW Dance school, etc.) to help facilitate such a plan. And we've also got the research showing its medicinal value to help promote it! So... I think I'll send an email with a brief overview of our project and how it might be adapted to enliven this charming little downtown oasis. | 5/13/2022 12:33 PM |

| 1 | I didn't realize it was open to the public so signage would be helpful! | 5/18/2022 8:22 PM |
| 2 | Easy access fir the disabled. | 5/17/2022 7:52 AM |
| 3 | Must feel safer. I go past it regularly to go to Cap Centre Market. Portapotty at the entrance and bike rack with trashed bikes is a deterrent to wanting to sit in the park. I never do because I don't feel safe. Also, it's always looked like private property for the Cap Centre apartments. | 5/16/2022 9:22 PM |
| 4 | More greenery, nicer seating | 5/14/2022 2:51 PM |
| 5 | It's a sweet location that has some regular foot traffic already (to and from the market), but feels fairly private now. I'm sure that a few fun and memorable public events in the courtyard would change that perception and bring people back to both enjoy happy memories they've made there, and to make new ones in the process, maybe even on a regular basis! | 5/13/2022 12:47 PM |
| 6 | Make sure the public knows it's a city park, and does not belong to the Senior Center. | 5/12/2022 4:57 PM |

| 11 | The broken curbs need to be fixed. The leaves and debris need to be swept and cleaned daily. People using the courtyard must behave appropriately (no foul language, no loud shouting). There should be shade from trees or canopies and some effort at attractive landscaping. | 5/10/2022 11:31 AM |

| 19 | Live at Metropolitan Place since 2003so have seen and heard many scary things, both in park and at store that brings the police and fire department. 4 blue porta-pottys hasn't helped.! | 5/9/2022 5:26 PM |
| 20 | It needs to be more"open" and visible Right now it just doesn't seem accessible and welcoming | 5/9/2022 5:14 PM |

| 57 | Some kind of signage or 'entry' experience so people can find it from the main roadways/sidewalks. | 5/5/2022 2:22 PM |
| 58 | It shouldn't be welcoming and inviting to ALL members of the community... at least not outside it's own local community. It was designed and created to serve the local residents and Seniors visiting the Center. Not to be used by the entire city. It's mess as my to be a quiet, relaxing, welcoming to the "slower members" of the area community and not to the larger community. To overlook this is to fail the Seniors and disabled residents living about it's compact area. | 4/29/2022 8:40 PM |
