

Documentary Film Screening of 13th | May 9, 6-9pm, Central Library (201 W. Mifflin St.)

The Task Force for Equity in Music and Entertainment, the Madison Arts Commission and the Department of Civil Rights invite you to a screening of the full-length documentary 13th, created by filmmaker Ava DuVernay. 13th is about the "intersection of race, justice, and mass incarceration in the U.S."

A community discussion follows, moderated by Dr. Karen Reece, President of Urban Community Arts Network, and former Chair of the Task Force for Equity in Music and Entertainment.

Discussion Panelists are Rob "Dz" Franklin Media Projects Bubblerarian for the Madison Public Library; Dr. Yorel Lashley, Director & Drum Power Founder & Assistant Director of the Office of Education, Outreach, & Partnerships; and Gloria Reyes, Madison Public School Board Member and former Deputy Mayor for the City of Madison

May 9, 2019

6:00pm Doors open - 3rd Floor Central Library

6:30pm Screening Begins

8:10pm Discussion

Real, educational,
and eye-opening.

Event Cost: Free

Handicapped Accessible: Yes

Film is close captioned; sign language interpreting of discussion

Sponsoring Organization(s):

Madison Arts Commission & Department of Civil Rights

Film rated MA/R. Trigger warning: violence, racial brutality, rape, & graphic images. For members of the community that cannot attend this screening of 13th, the film is available on Netflix.

"Systems of oppression are durable, and they tend to reinvent themselves."

— Glenn Martin, 13th

MADISON
PUBLIC
LIBRARY

Task Force for
EQUITY in Music
& Entertainment

Contact:

Sean Ottosen, Community Engagement Librarian,
sottosen@madisonpubliclibrary.org,

Karin Wolf, Arts Program Administrator, kwolf@cityofmadison.com

Martha White, Contract Compliance Specialist, Department of Civil Rights, DCR@cityofmadison.com